DILIGENTIÂ JOSEPHI HUNTER, SHEFFIELDIENSIS. S.A.S.

Volume K.

EDITED BY

JOHN W. CLAY, F.S.A.

LONDON:

1894.

I have taken this pains not for the present age, but a future.
Many things which were known to our grandsires are lost to us ; and our grandchildren will search in vain for many facts which to us are most familiar.

Parvula (nam exemplo est) magni formica laboris
Ore trahit quodcumque potest atque addit acervo
Quem struit hand ignara ac non incauta futuri.

He heapeth up riches and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Scribuntur hæc in generatione alterâ.

Ps. cii. v. 18.

The Race of Man is one vast marshalled army
Summoned to pass the spacious realms of Time
Their leader the Almighty.

See the vain Race of Mortals move
Like Shadows o'er the Plain,
They rage and strive, desire and love,
But all the Noise is vain,
Some walk in Honour's gaudy Show,
Some dig for golden Ore,
They toil for Heirs they know not who,
And strait are seen no more.

Transivere patres ; simul et transibimus omnes ;
At cœlum patriam, qui bene transit, habet.

The busy tribes of flesh and blood
With all their hopes and fears
Are carried downward by the flood
And lost in following years.

Like flowery fields the nations stand
Pleased with the morning light ;
The flowers beneath the mower's hand
Lie withering ere 'tis night.

Preface.

THE REV. JOSEPH HUNTER, F.S.A., the Historian of Hallamshire and South Yorkshire, was born at Sheffield 6 February 1783, being the son of Michael Hunter, a cutler. His mother dying early, he was placed under the guardianship of the Rev. Joseph Evans, a Presbyterian Minister, who sent him to a school at Sheffield. In 1805 he began to study for the Ministry under the Rev. Charles Wellbeloved at York, and in 1809 became the Minister of an Unitarian Congregation at Bath. From an early period he devoted himself to antiquarian pursuits, and particularly to the history of his native county. He published in 1819 the 'History of Hallamshire,' and in 1828 and 1831 the 'History of South Yorkshire,' which latter work may perhaps be considered one of the best county histories in existence. In 1833 he was appointed a Sub-Commissioner and in 1838 Assistant Keeper of Public Records. From that time he lived in London, where he died 9 May 1861, and was buried in Ecclesfield Churchyard.

After his death a large number of his Manuscripts became the property of the British Museum. They are numbered Add. MSS. 24,436—630, 24,864—885, 25,459—481, 25,676—7, 31,021.

Without a doubt the most important of these is Add. MS. 24,458, which he entitled "Familiæ Minorum Gentium," though it is doubtful whether the title is a happy one.

It is a thick folio volume of some 650 pages completely filled with pedigrees, chiefly of Yorkshire, Derbyshire, Cheshire, and Lancashire families, though of course their branches extend over other counties. Mr. HUNTER, by reason of his large genealogical acquaintance and also of his connection with the leading Unitarian families of the day, had the opportunity of gathering together such a mass of information that this book has perhaps been as much consulted as any work of a similar character in the Museum.

The Council of the Harleian Society has now decided to print it in full, considering that the members and others interested in Genealogy should have the opportunity of always being able to obtain the information it contains.

The manuscript has been copied by Mr. A. H. Heppell, and the Editor has carefully compared the transcript with the original, as well as most of the proof sheets. Those who are acquainted with Mr. HUNTER'S handwriting, especially in his later years, will sympathize with the copyist and the Editor in their tasks, as many words are so written that they can be very variously deciphered; the greatest difficulty has been found in the proper names of persons, where no reference is easily attainable, and of small places not in a Gazetteer. Many thanks are due to Mr. Bickley of the Manuscript Room in the British Museum for his help in clearing up the meaning of some of the most puzzling words.

It has been thought advisable to make as an exact a copy as possible, and not to alter or continue the pedigrees, but a few footnotes have been given to correct any manifest errors, and also to add some further entries from the Northowram and other Parish Registers which might throw further light on the subject. The pagination of the MS. is also given, so that Mr. HUNTER'S references to other pedigrees can be easily found.

It is proposed to complete the Work in four volumes, and to print the Index in the concluding one.

The following abbreviations are frequently used by Mr. Hunter :—

Ath. Ox. Wood's 'Athenæ Oxonienses.'

Calamy. 'The Nonconformist Memorial: an account of the Ministers ejected at the Restoration.'

Calamy Cont. 'Calamy's continuation of the account of the Ministers ejected.'

The Northowram Registers of O. Heywood, 1644—1702, which were continued by J. Dickinson, 1702—1752, have also been printed by Mr. Turner in 1881 under the title of 'The Nonconformist Register.'

‡ Mr. Samuel Wadsworth of Horbury and Mrs. Welcome Kerby mar. Tuesday, May 25, 1697.—J. W. C.

§ Godsgift Kirby died November 22, 1686.—J. W. C.

The account contained in this and the following pages of the descendants of Joshua Kirby, the ejected Cambden Lecturer of Wakefield, is taken for the most part from the memoirs of him and his family compiled in the year 1760 by Dr. Sutton of Leicester, one of his descendants. Two copies of Dr. Sutton's MSS. have been used; one the property of Mrs. Milnes of Fryston in Yorkshire, an 8vo of 143 pages with 25 of additions. This was for some time in my hand. The other was the property of Sir Wadsworth Busk. Of this my late friend Mr. Moulton of Wickersley in Yorkshire made a transcript, which has been compared with Mr. Milnes' MSS. I have made a few additions, principally from the MSS. of Mr. Oliver Heywood and Mr. Thomas Dickenson.

Mr. Kirby's rhymes were valued by his family, and I find that Mr. O. Heywood, who was his friend, transcribed many of them for his own use. The following may serve as a specimen, and be at the same time a proof of the Genealogy as far as it goes:—

Mary did wisely choose the better part
Susanna did her own to Christ impart
Elizabeth religiously did live
Phæbe did succour unto many give
Camdena of my foundress remindeth me
Welcome expresses what a child should be
Godsgift both fathers names may bear and spread
Twin is the living monument of my dead
Joshua rejoiceth in his Saviour's name, Believeth, Preacheth and suffers for the same.

Roberts—Hanger.

I am told that the Philip Roberts from whom the coheir descended by male succession was a near relation of Sir Gabriel Roberts.

This is taken principally from Dr Sutton's MS. & Le Neve's Knights' pedigrees (MS. in Bibl. Harl.), whence the notice of Hanger is entirely derived.—Continued from the Irish Peerage.

Joshua Iremonger was son of Jos<sup>a</sup> I., a brewer in London, by Sarah, dau. of Edw. Lascelles of Stoke Newington, son of another Joshua by Hannah, d. of John Raymond of London, Brewer. Sarah Lascelles mar. 2 . . . .

An only dau., but in Berry's 'Hampshire Genealogies' it is said that by this marriage was Joshua his son & heir.

The Monuments of the Roberts in the Church of St. Martin's Outwich are engraved in a 4to. book printed about 1795, being a description of the Parish. There are 15 engraved plates & a few leaves of letterpress. I never saw it before this day Sep. 15, 1846, & I think it cannot have been published. (See if it is in Upcott, see M.P.B., xv., 15, & C.V.A., iv., 106.)

Sir John Fryer, Bart., had twins born to him in the year of his Mayoralty at Goldsmiths' Hall 5 June 1721 by his wife Dorcas. They were baptised the same day by Dr John Evans, & named Gabriel & Delicia. The boy died 25 of that month. (Register of Dr Evans.)

A HALLAMSHIRE GENEALOGY.

A Correspondent communicates the following Statement respecting the family of Mrs Elizabeth Roberts, whose death was announced in our last :—This lady was lineally descended from the Marriotts of Ughill Hall, & was the legitimate heiress-tail of Thomas and Benjamin Marriott, Esquires, deceased. As the history of this Hallamshire family is not generally known, I subjoin it as follows:—The Marriotts derived their name from the town of Marriott, in Normandy, whence three brothers, Rudolph, Augustine, and William, accompanied the Conqueror to England, & from their bravery at the Battle of Hastings, under Du Buisby, received grants of lands. According to the Charter of the Marriotts, it appears that the Manor of Ughill, or as it is termed Uggeechala, was given to them without power of Alienation. We find the Marriotts taking an active part in the Barons' wars (Adam & Thomas De Marriott in the time of Edward I.), & also in those of the Roses, fighting under De Clifford (Thomas de Marriott, 15 Henry VI.). From this period to that of the Civil Wars the Marriotts were chiefly engaged in foreign wars till about 1647, we find John Marriott of Ughill, a celebrated Parliamentarian, who was several times fined or plundered by the Royalists of Sheffield Castle. From John Marriott the estates descended to Jonathan Marriott by heirship, who, dying in 1729, the estates of the Marriotts devolved on the next heir Thomas Marriott, who was a benefactor to the School at Bradfield, and the Chapel at Stanington. Having no issue by his wife Mary Woodhead, he left his estates, by will dated 3rd day of February 1752, to his next heir male Benjamin Marriott, & to his heirs for ever. On the death of Thomas, which happened in February 1754, Benjamin became seized. A great mystery exists concerning this gentleman, who was possessed of considerable wealth. I willingly draw a veil over the dark transactions of this period. Both the gentry & their victim have long ago paid the debt of nature. I understand that digging for a new cellar some years ago at Ughill, the remains of a human skeleton were found, which was at the time strongly suspected to have been Marriott's. Be that as it may, Thomas Parkin, or as he termed himself Thomas Maryott Perkins, was no relation to the Marriott family. After the death of Hannah Worrall his wife, who died March 1755, & Mary his daughter in infancy, the heirship descended to his cousin Joseph Marriott, an officer of note in the King's service. He was engaged in several engagements, & wounded eight times all in front. By his wife Mary Green he had a daughter Mary Marriott, who married a James Wilde. The issue of this marriage, Elizabeth, married first Thos. Dobbs of Sheffield, deceased, & secondly . . . Roberts, deceased, both of whom she survived. She has left issue living.

Hatfield—Marshall.

MS. 14

The great authority for this page is the pedigree which the family entered at Dugdale's Visitation, 1666. Many dates are added from the parish Register of Laughton. Some of the latter parts are from the information of M<sup>r</sup> Moulton, who knew the family, & by M<sup>rs</sup> Bright of Sheffield, a dau. of Westby Hatfield, who being much reduced in his circumstances was at the time of his death Master of the Boys Charity School in Sheffield. The Monuments of Laughton & Hatfield have supplied some particulars, & I have had the use of a pedigree which seemed to have been compiled about 1770 by one of the family, which contained the marriages of Anthony Hatfield's children.

Nicholas Hatfield* of Hatfield-house in Shire-Green in psh. of Ecclesfield & co. of York, 2 Ed. VI. Will 2 Aug. 1558 mentions a kinsman young Alexander, a kinswoman widow Holden, kinsman Robert French & his brother Alexander French.

Hannah, bur. 12 Feb. 1728, aged 1 yr.	Westby, bur. 18 Jan. 1735, aged 1 year.	Ebenezer, d. in infancy.	Esther, d. in infancy.

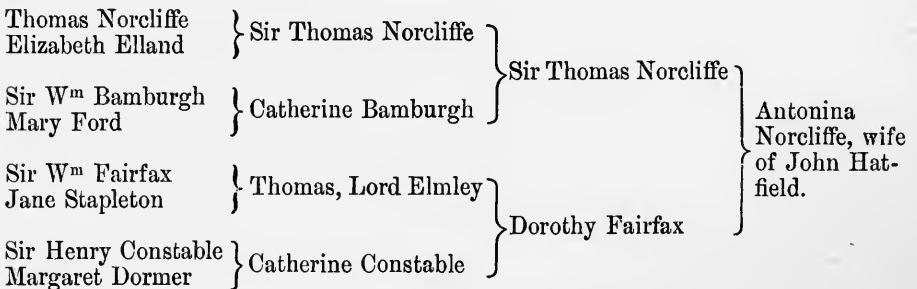

There is some uncertainty about Alexander Hatfield, son of John H. of Hatfield. In Dr Benson's Register we find Susanna Hatfield, daughter of Mr Alexander Hatfield, a tide-waiter, who lived in Horn Court, Bear Lane, near Thames Street, in parish of All Hallows Barking, and Elizabeth his wife, b. 15 Sep., bp. 12 Oct. 1751.

The great question is who was the father of Nicholas? Dugdale has entered two pedigrees of Hatfield in C. 40, containing different accounts. One states that he was the son of Stephen Hatfield of Hatfield in Hoderness, to whom Wil . . . Flower granted the Arms in 1563. This is the entry made by the Hatfields of Laughton. But when Captain John Hatfield made an entry he deduced his descent from Adam de Hatfield of Hatfield in Glossopdale.

And this pedigree is also registered. This is one amongst other proofs of the want of care in the compilation of that great Yorkshire Record. (See another under Westby.)

In another place D<sup>r</sup> Pegge gives a very different account of these Moors, viz. :-

See a good pedigree of this family in Glover's 'Derbyshire.'

There is a Will of William Milnes, sen., of Ashford, yeo., dated 16 April 1668, & proved 2 May 1679. He speaks of his wife Elizabeth, sons William & Richard, daus. Alice Hinck, Elizabeth Heaney? & Jane. Now might not this Richard be the Richard from which the large family of the Milnes sprung? At least the question deserves consideration.

It appears from this pedigree that of the five sons of Richard Milnes from the—

- i. Richard, there is no issue remaining;
- ii. Robert, the families of R. S. Milnes, Sir R. S. Milnes & John Milnes of Heywood, Whitwell, Torre Lees, & Lumbe;
- iii. James, the only descendents are the two bachelors, Lowndes & Kay, neither of whom it is probable will ever marry;
- iv. John, the two Mr Gaskells, of whom only one has issue;
- v. William, the family of Oates of Weetwood, & the Boroughs;

And that all the males are extinct except in the line of Robert, the second son. Further that Robert Pemberton Milnes is the head of the family, and by his mother, the representative of Buske, Rodes, Rich, etc.

An excellent account of the Milnes family appeared in the fifth volume of Betham's Baronetage, p. 431—436. It was compiled by my late friend John Milnes, Esq. (son of John), & Thomas Blore, Esq. Mr Milnes employed his time in the latter years of his life in collecting the Genealogies of his own family, & of those families who had been connected with his. Many of his papers he sent to me a few days before his decease, & there will be found interspersed in this pedigree several additional circumstances to Betham's account, collected from those papers, & especially from an interleaved copy of that part of the Baronetage full of notes in Mr Milnes' own hand. I will not make this mention of Mr Milnes without adding that I knew him not till toward the end of his varied life, & when his health was much impaired, but during the few years in which I had the pleasure of his acquaintance, I found him an ever ready & assiduous friend, a cheerful & pleasant companion, an amiable, & I may say an interesting man, possessed also of an ardent love of genealogical inquiries, such as I have known not more than one other instance.—J. H., July 27, 1820.

Priestley.

See particularly York Wills 428 & 577. Joseph Priestley of Halifax was admitted of Gray's Inn 4 Feb. 1662.

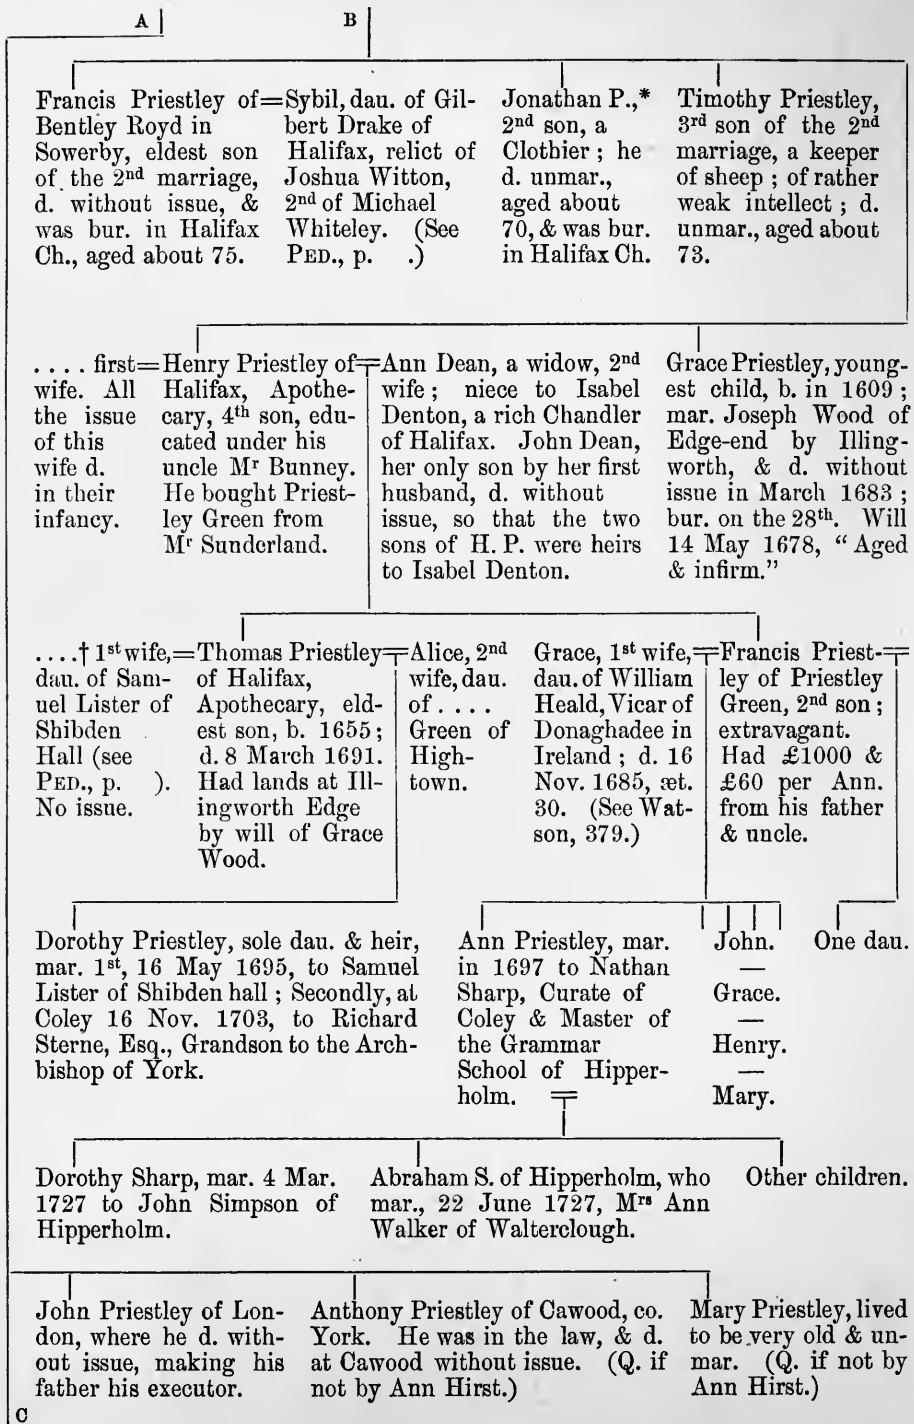

Few families of the same rank can produce a more ample account of themselves than is contained of the Priestleys in these two pages. The basis of this Pedigree is to be found in the Memoirs of the family, begun in 1698 by Jonathan Priestley, and continued in 1779 by his Grandson Nathaniel Priestley.* The continuation has been added from Mr Milnes' papers, & was for the most part communicated to him by the late Mr Priestley of White Windows. I have added many dates and a few circumstances from the Obituaries of Oliver Heywood and Thomas Dickenson. A copy of the Priestley Memoirs will be found among my collections, 8 Sep. 1820. The account of the family in Watson's 'History of Halifax' is very erroneous.

The arms which have been taken up by some members of this family of Priestley are those granted by Camden to a Priestley of London. (See Camden's Grants.)

Scott. by Joseph Dawson 29 Dec. 1721. of Leeds, a Quaker, b. 1658.

Samuel. John, in will of John Barlow, 1720, of Leeds.
Could these be the family above? Eliz., wid. of Robert Scott, being a second wife.
This must be the niece Scott named in the will of Francis Barlow.

This account of the family of Dawson is principally compiled from some family memoirs begun by M<sup>r</sup> Joseph Dawson of Rochdale, & continued by his daughter Martha, which were in the possession of his grandson, the Rev. Joseph Evans of Sheffield. Information here has also been derived from the Obituaries of Oliver Heywood & Thomas Dickenson, and the preferments of the conforming sons of Eli Dawson are for the most part derived from a notice of them in the 5th volume of 'The Monthly Repository.'

We have here a remarkable instance of the extinction of Families once numerous. There are, I believe, no male Dawson remaining descended of Abraham & Alice. The only descendants of Joseph Dawson of Rochdale are M<sup>rs</sup> Naylor of Manchester (page ) & her 3 children. Her family & the two unmarried Miss Dawsons of Leeds are, I believe, the only descendants male or female of the Ejected Minister, 1820.

M<sup>rs</sup> Elizabeth Dawson of Leeds, who in January 1708 mar. M<sup>r</sup> Samuel Scott, was a near relation of this family, as I find by the diary of M<sup>rs</sup> Evans, dau. of M<sup>r</sup> Joseph Dawson. Her mother was bur. there 14 Dec. 1709. I find also in Dickenson's Obituary, 1739, M<sup>r</sup> Joshua Dawson of Leeds, bur. July 10, aged 90, an old Disciple.

Accepted Lister in a letter to Thoresby, 1693, speaks of his cousin Dawson.

There is in print a Funeral Sermon preached at Leeds 6 Feb. 1703-4, on occasion of the death of Benjamin Dawson, who d. Jan. 27, by Ac. Lister, pastor of a Church in Bradford Dale, entitled "Christ's coming, a Believer's comfort." No biography, but it appears B. D. was a member of the congregation to which it was addressed. (A Dawson will, York Wills, 1794.)

Best.

This very singular genealogy is correctly compiled from Mr Oliver Heywood's account of the family, with all the members of which he was well acquainted. (York Wills, 537.)

Byerley.

The descent of this John Byerley I find thus stated in a MS. of J. C. Brooke, Esq., 'Somerset Herald,' entitled "Chaos." It seems to have been communicated to Brooke by the younger John Byerley when he was engaged in prosecuting his claim to the estates of Colonel Byerley.

Col. Rob. Byerley of Goldsborough gave bond to the Queen 5 July 1706 in £1000, for the faithful performance of his office by Thos. Byerley, Esq., Receiver-General of the Revenues of the Province of New York.—Ex<sup>d</sup>.

Leber—Dixon.

This account of the Dixons is from the family memoirs of the Dawson before mentioned. The Levers are from several articles in Calamy. Another member of the family was the wife of William Pell, an ejected minister. She is said by Calamy to have been niece to the wife of Henry Lever; I presume to his first wife, in connection with whose jointure the circumstance is mentioned. I find in a notice of Mr Pell in the MS. Memoirs of Ambrose Barnes that she was a Mrs Ellison of a considerable family. Mr Evans was also in correspondence with a relation who subscribes herself Anne Clavering, & who was the widow of Sir . . . Clavering. Many things are added from a letter of Sir Cuthbert Sharp. Other Levers in Sir Cuthbert's letter.

Scholefield.

In the possession of Mr Radcliffe Scholefield of Birmingham was the original Grant of Arms from Flower Norroy to Francis Scholefield of Scholefield-hall, co. Lanc., Esq., viz., Arg., a fess between 3 bulls' heads coupée guardant Gules. Crest, On a torse a bull's head coupée guardant Gules, charged on the neck with a collar Argent.

In a collection of Lancashire pedigrees I have seen the following.

Mr Dickenson's Obituary contains this entry: 1708, Mr Radcliffe Scholefield the Lawyer near Rochdale d. ab<sup>t</sup> month of January. There can hardly be a doubt that the gentleman here meant is the Radcliffe son of James. I think it very probable that he is the person who stands at the head of the following pedigree, though my communicant Mr<sup>s</sup> Josepha Scholefield gave the name of Richard.

Radcliffe S., the barrister, had a sister, she mar. Seth Clayton of Scholefield Hall, whose dau. Mary (?) was 2nd wife of Josiah Gartside of Rochdale, Mercht.

M<sup>r</sup> Scholefield of Birmingham used to say that his grandfather was disinherited, & the estate of Scholefield given to the four daughters.

In the vol. of Lancashire & Cheshire Wills, Harl. 2067, is the will of Scofield of Scofield Hall, (I think) Cuthbert, about 1560, in which he leaves to a bastard son, I think Alexander Scofield.

Richard Carill, brother to Blaze Carill & others, mar. Eliz., dau. of Alexander Scofield of Scofield Hall, & had Richard C. of the Pipe Office, Thomas, & Mary. (Harl. 1397, p. 169.)

Thomas Smith of Castleton Hall, son of John Smith of Spark, Mercht<sup>r</sup> ; d. 1806. = Penelope, coh<sup>r</sup>, b. 1750 ; mar. on 23 Feb. 1774 ; d. 29 Dec. (?) 1823, aged 73. Esther, younger dau., b. 1755.

Cotton.

MS. 55

This pedigree was compiled by John Milnes, Esq., from family papers at the Haigh, assisted by Mr<sup>s</sup> Cotton's Steward. He communicated it to me by letter dated 6 April 1808. It has been extended and confirmed, as far as her knowledge went, by Mr<sup>s</sup> Ellinor Hotham, a daughter of Benedicta Cotton, a very old lady, still living at York 1821. Respecting the connection with the Cottons of Cumbermere, Mr Milnes wrote thus: The Cottons of the Haigh have always had a tradition, and that strong, that they were descended from a junior branch of the Cottons of Cumbermere. I have seen some of the Cottons of Yardsley in Cheshire at my cousin George Cotton's, as also a brother of Sir R. Cotton of Cumbermere, and the families at the Haigh, and those at Cumbermere visited and acknowledged relationship. He adds: "There seems to have been an acknowledged branch of the family at the Haigh settled in America."

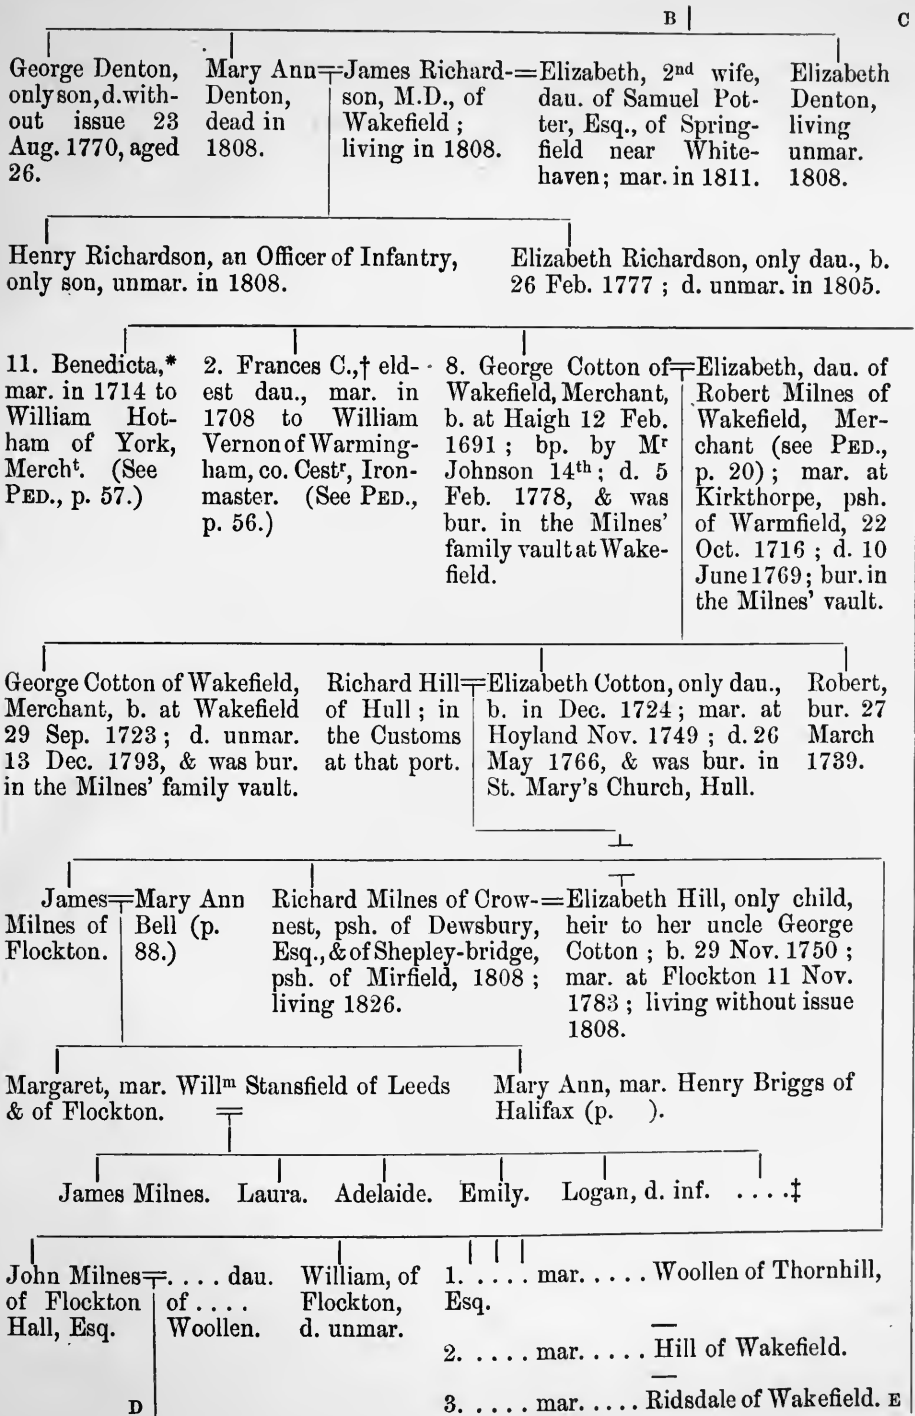

Within the altar rails in the Church of Darton, co. York, is this Ins<sup>t</sup>: Here lyeth the body of William Cotton, Gent., of Haigh, who married to his 2nd wife Anna, the dau. of George Westby of Ravenfield, Esq., by whom he had issue 6 sons and 9 daughters. He dyed upon the 6th day of May Anno Dom. 1703, in the 55 year of his age.

<sup>1</sup> I saw this old lady at her house in Goodram Gate, York, in November 1829, in possession of her faculties, at a very advanced age. It is not every one who can say that he has conversed with a person whose father was born 150 years before. She d. in 1836 at the age, we believed, of 98. Unless Mr Peacock left issue the whole issue of Martin & Hannah is extinct, a remarkable instance of rather a numerous family becoming wholly lost. Perhaps Mr<sup>s</sup> Peacopp has issue, but I believe not. Mr<sup>s</sup> Ellinor Hotham I knew very well. She is still living, 1829, a remarkable instance of the offspring of a marriage made in 1714 being alive 115 years after.

Arms: Azure, a fess wavy Sable spotted with ermine or, in chief 3 crescents arg. Crest: A lion rampant or, standing before a crescent arg. Lowbridge Bright, in or about 1780, consulted the College about his pedigree & arms, when it was proposed that his Crest should be an etoil rising out of a crescent, and of this I imagine a grant was made.

Fern—Evans—Fightingale.

These notices of Fern of Derbyshire are from the papers of John Milnes, Esq., who evidently received them from his friend Mr Blore, in whose Derbyshire Collections I remember to have seen good accounts of most branches of the family. It will be observed that some of the modern gentry of the County of Derby are handsomely connected with the antient aristocracy of the County by the marriage of Hannah Fern, an heiress. What quarterings she brought with her may be seen in Harl. MS. 1436, f. 34, a visitation book of the County of Lincoln, where is a laboured pedigree of Fern, probably compiled by Sir John Fern, the boast of this family, who is recorded as son of William, of Temple Belwood, son of John, of Parwich, by Phelis or Felicia Milward. (Harl. 1174, f. 130.)

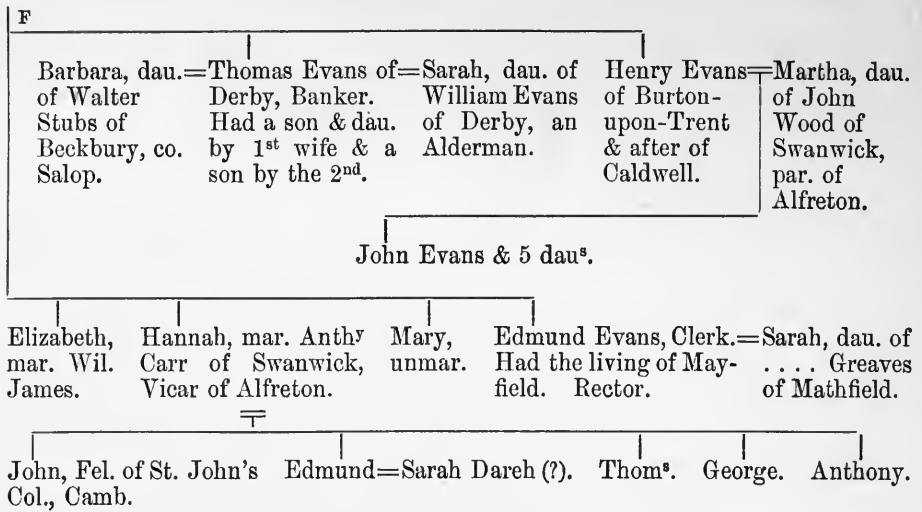

<sup>1</sup> This account of M<sup>rs</sup> Milnes' descent is entirely from memoranda in M<sup>r</sup> Milnes' own hand. A few additions made to it since from D<sup>r</sup> Pegge's Collection.

Poole—Sager.

MS. 66

I have had the use of many Wills, Deeds, & Registers in compiling this pedigree of Poole. Some I saw at the house of M<sup>r</sup> David Poole of Pontefract, where I spent a day in 1809 with M<sup>r</sup> John Milnes. I have a considerable mass of matter unarranged respecting other branches of the family, from which I select the following particulars.

* See Glover's 'Derbyshire,' ii., 8.—J. W. C.

Thoresby adds this to the pedigree, which I have not seen anything to prove, neither indeed to disprove, D. L., p. 74.

David Poole, in the margin of his copy of the 'Ducatus,' says that the Ordinary in the Arms should be a fess and not a chevron.

Who was Samuel Poole of Wavertree near Liverpool, living in 1818, whose grandmother was one of the daus. of Samuel & Faith Child of the Holmes near Leeds ('Hallamshire,' p. 248, MS. note) ?

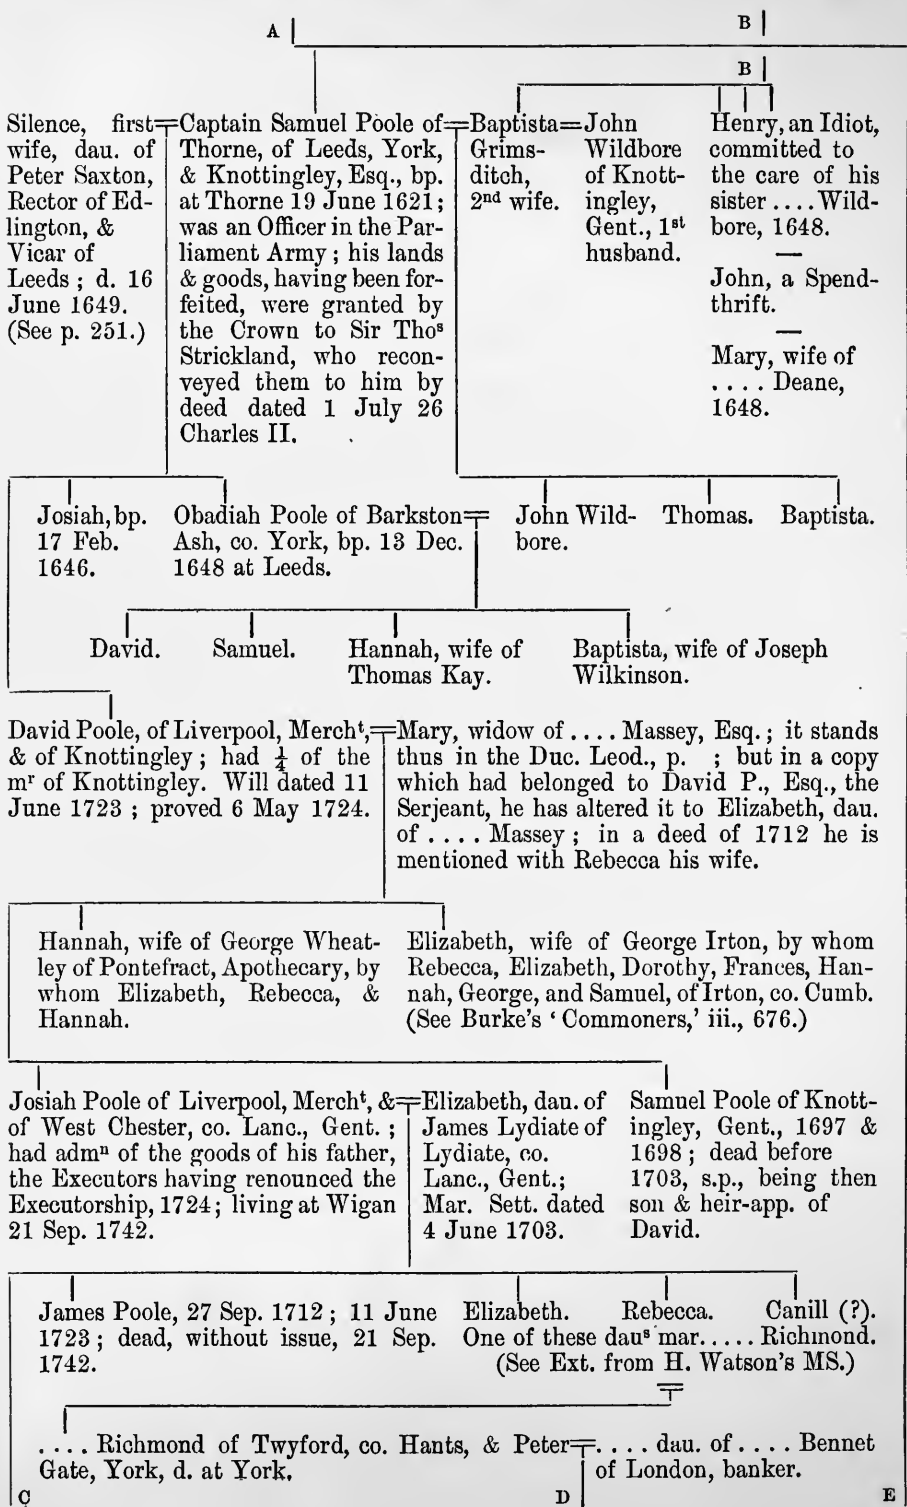

<sup>1</sup> Of this family appears to have been Samuel Poole of Wavertree near Liverpool, who, in 1818, wrote to Sir W<sup>m</sup> Bagshaw of the Oaks on his descent. He stated that his grandmother was a dau. & coheir of Samuel Child of the Holmes near Leeds, by Spencer, & that the other coheirs mar. Bagshaw & Col. Orford.

A mon. in the Church of Bradford for M<sup>r</sup> David Poole, Apothecary, b. at Barkston Ash 11 Oct. 1681; d. at Bradford 29 March 1712; mar. Dor., dau. of M<sup>r</sup> Henry Hoppy of Bradford, & had 2 children, John & Samuel, who both d. young.

See York Wills, 394, 441, 886, 552; Savage's 'Winthrop,' iii., 252.

John Grimesditch of Knottingley, mar. Ann, dau. of John O. Linsells, wid. of Tho. Carter of Pontefract, by whom Jacobus, Tho., & Eliz. (MS. Collection in the Heralds' College).

There is a good ped. of Sir W<sup>m</sup> Sager's family (Ayscough, 4964).

One or more of the Sagers are legatees in the will of Bridget, Lady Galway.

York Wills, 1684, is of John Sager, the elder, of North Bierley in psh. of Bradford, cooper, 1717.

It is remarkable that the Sagers, descendants of the N. C. Minister who conformed & had such good preferment, were greatly reduced in the world so as to be indebted to the eleemosynary assistance of the Milnes for many years for their support, & are so now. A benefaction to one of them living at Leicester from M<sup>r</sup> Monckton Milnes passed through my own hands in or about 1842.

Rayner.

See notices of the name of Rayner or Reyner in the County of York, at pp. 3, 16, 67, 208, 249.

Sir William Rayner of Overton Longvile appears to have been of the Yorkshire family, for Edward Rayner, b. at Morley 1600, is spoken of as related to his granddau. Mary, Lady Armine. (Calamy Acc<sup>n</sup> 440 ; see also p. 117 of this book, & p. 311, p. 372.)

Rayner—Liversedge.

Will of Constance Rayner, Trowell, co. Notts, spinster, 12 Jan. 1639. (York Wills, 2117.)

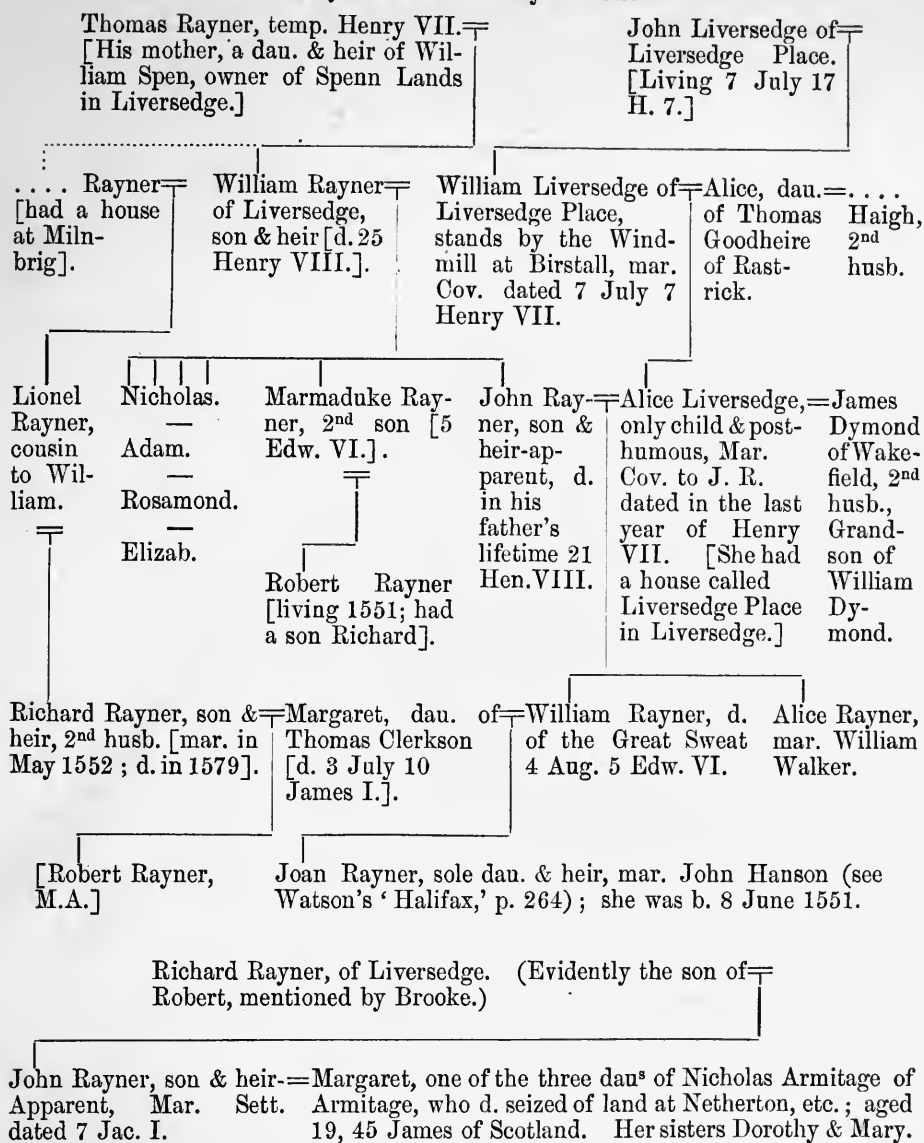

A Constance Rayner connected with Ward the Gresham professor & with Eli Gaunt.

Arms: Ermine, on a chief 2 mullets. Proof referred to last visitation, but none found. From a Visitation of Nottinghamshire. It is inferred that the Rayners above were related to this family from M<sup>rs</sup> Stead having been heard to speak of relations of the name of Molineux.

An Ann Rayner, dau. of John, of Drayton ; b. 1681 ; mar. Robert Grammer of Bakewell, Mercht, as appears by her monument in the Church of Bakewell.

See also ped. of Goodwin.

Rayners of the County of York.

All this is abstracted from proceedings relating to a dispute about the Manor of Liversedge which is to be found in vol. i. of Beckwith's Collection, now among Gough's books at the Bodleian, 1821.

The part in brackets from J. C. Brooke's notes.

Thomas Rayner of Beghall, a Juryman on Bernard's Survey of the Dutchy lands, 1577.

Nicholas Rayner of Duffield, co. Derby. ....; d. Sep. 169-.

Gervas R. of Duffield, Gent., d. 10 Jan. 1700, aged 73.

Of this family must, I think, have been John Rayner who was pastor of the Independent Church at New Plymouth, N.E., having had a sister Alice, mar. to . . . Southworth, & 2 W<sup>m</sup> Bradford. A dau. of John Rayner mar. a son of . . . Southworth his cousin.

Humphrey Rayner of Rowley in New England, in his will dated 27 Sep. 1660, requests his dear brother M<sup>r</sup> John Rayner, pastor of Dover, & Deacon Jowit of Rowley, to be overseers. In the Inventory, which amounts to 865 1 2. "In the hands of Marmaduke Rayner in Old England £40." This looks as if they were Rayners of Liversedge.

I am informed from America that John Rayner, the Pastor, mar. one of 4 dau<sup>s</sup> of . . . Boyse of Leeds, coheirs by the death of their brother in Leeds, killed in the Civil Wars. Another of the dau<sup>rs</sup> of Boyse mar. . . . Robinson, & another a Clergyman.

A

There had been Smithsons at Methley, and I should presume of this family, before the purchases made by Gilbert Smithson: Mary, the dau. of Peter Birbeck, Rector of Castleford, being mar. about the year 1660 to William Smithson of Methley. (C. 40 in Col. Arms.)

A

<sup>1</sup> We have no other proof of Isaac being the son of Christopher than the Register of his baptism. It is scarcely likely that two children, both named Isaac Wilkinson, should be b. at Little Horton about the same time. It is, however, probable that Ann Waller might not be the mother, but some second wife of C. W.

Crue—Moulson.

N.B. In some Memoranda of Susanna Crue (afterwards Eddowes) she speaks of cousin Madocks, cousin Tylston, cousin Hill, and cousin Kirks. This was about 1710.

The account of the Crues is from deeds and private information. But I find in Holmes' MSS. at the Museum., Harl. 2119, p. 80, the following Pedigree, which is clearly of the people :—

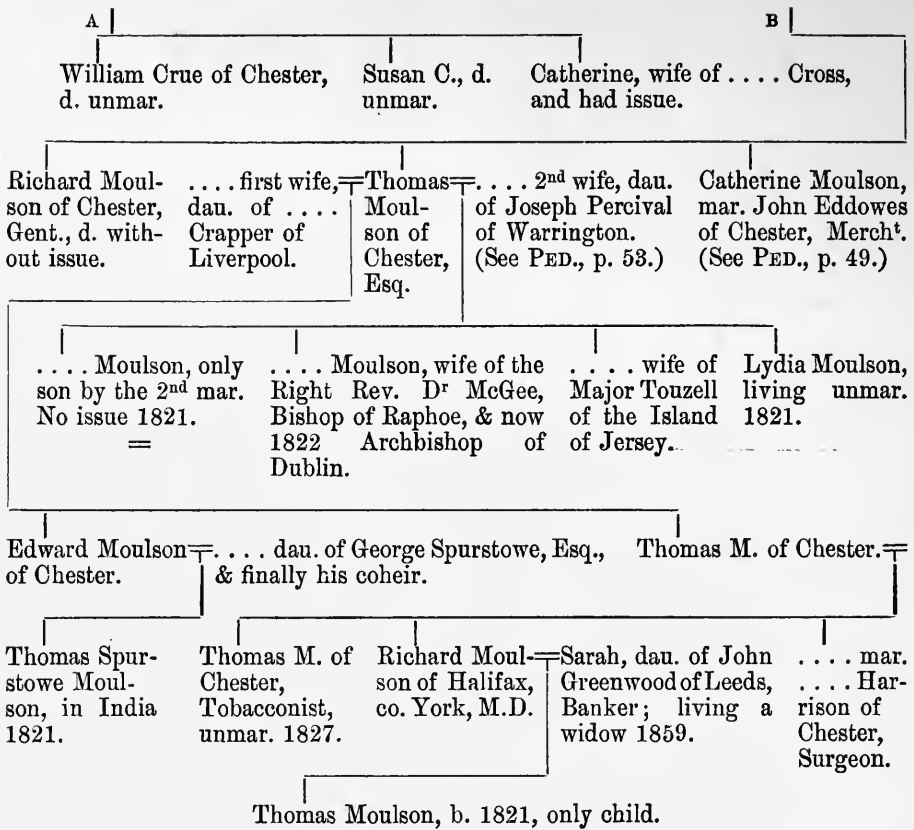

Where also is the descent of Randle. It was probably drawn up about 1690.

William Crue of Chester, Ironmonger, dead in 1704. This is clearly the William on the right, the Grocer. | Susanna . . . living a widow in 1704. | . . . Moulson.

Buck.

MS. 91

This pedigree I received from Gamaliel Lloyd, Esq., formerly of Bury St. Edmunds, to whom it was communicated by his friend William Buck, Esq., of that town. They used the arms of the Baronet family of Buck of Lincolnshire, some of which family lived in the East Riding of Yorkshire near Burlington. For this family see Wootton's 'Barts.,' iii., 205.

Thomas, son of Francis Hall, Jun., & Hannah his wife of Swaithe, Gent., d. 4 Nov. 1723, aged 2—all bur. at Worsborough; whence I conclude that Hannah Buck mar. # Foljambe.

See for this ped. various letters of Mr Ince's in my Correspondence containing matter not here entered.

Henry Foljambe of Eastwood in par. = Elizabeth = Margaret = Hannah, wid<sup>r</sup> & of Rotherham, co. York, Gent., bur. in the Church of Rotherham 19 March 1699-1700. Will 17th Feb. 1699. Barber. Executrix. Her will dated 1711.

The substance of this pedigree of Foljambe I received from my late friend Robert Wyldé Moulton of Wickersley, who knew many of the parties. Dates have been added from the parish Register of Rotherham, and the memorials of them in the church of that town, where many of them lie interred.

The great question on this pedigree is how this family is connected with the great house of Foljambe, so numerous & so potent in the county of Derby and at Aldwark which is near to Eastwood. The point was under the consideration of Mr Radclyffe, the Rouge-Croix Pursuivant, some years ago, but I am not acquainted with the result. I shall subjoin a few notices which may assist in any future inquiries.

In the middle aisle of the Church of Eckington, co. Derb., is this inscription : Here lyeth the body of Elizabeth the wife of Richard Cowley of Renishaw, yeoman, and daughter of Mr Henry Foljambe. She departed this life October the 8, 1734, aged 67. Richard Cowley the husband d. 12 April 1737, aged 65. John Foljambe, Gent., of Renishaw, 23 Feb. 1760, aged 67. Margaret, relict of John Foljambe, 24 March 1768, aged 74. I was told that this Margaret was an Heiress of Cowley, and rightly, for John Foljambe & Marg<sup>t</sup> Cowley were mar. at Brampton 15 Jan. 1722.

In the Register of Rotherham—1692, Sep. 15, mar. Richard Cowley of Renishaw & Eliz. Foulgham of Eastwood ; 1697, Dec. 2, mar. John Scargell & M<sup>rs</sup> Hannah Foulgham. This clearly connects the wife of Cowley with Eastwood.

In the Register of Beighton, co. Derb.—1750, Nov. 28, mar. Thomas Birks of Wentworth and Elizabeth Foljambe of the parish of Eckington.

In the Register of Brampton, co. Derb.—1664, Aug. 2, mar. Henry Foljambe, Gent., and Margaret Barber.

In Ped. of Pole of High-edge, Milicent, dau. of Godfrey Pole of that place, b. about 1620 ; mar. Henry Foljambe of Attenborough. (P. 149.)

Hannah Foljambe, a servant of Dr S. Wright 1734.

Will of Henry Foljambe of Attenborough, co. Notts, Gent., bears date 17 May 1669. His wife living. Dau.-in-law Ann Bridges, brother John, sons Henry, Charles, John, & Godfrey, daus. Mary Pilkington, son Duke, dau. Elizabeth Foljambe, Ambeley my grandchild. Makes his brother John Foljambe of Seithbell (?) and his son Henry of Horne-hall his Executors ; proved at York.

The present Foljambes of Aldwark are Mores by paternal descent, and unless the family on this page are such, it seems that there no longer remains any genuine Foljambes. One never sees the name in any lists. There is a family in Gloucestershire who write their names Fulljames. It is about as unlikely that a beautiful name should become thus corrupted as that it should be any other than Foljambe.

The account of Oddy I received from Mr Radclyffe who was employed professionally by Mr T. T. Oddy. I believe he made an entry of the pedigree in the books of the College of Arms 14 June 1821.

1809, March 9, mar. W<sup>m</sup> Turner, Esq., of Kilnhurst, to Sophia, 3rd dau. of John Foljambe, Esq., of Rotherham.

1805, April 25, mar. Lieutenant Foljambe of Wakefield to Miss Ridsdale, dau. of Edward Ridsdale, Esq.

See more on this family in letters of Mr Ince.

Abigail Morton, sister of Nathaniel Morton, who was nephew & heir-at-law of Nathaniel Beverley of Rotherham, mar. 1 John Law, & 2 George Dyson of Sheffield, baker.

Godfrey, son of Henry Foljambe, Gent., late of Walton, deceased, bound apprentice for 7 years, 5 Feb. 1633, to Richard Webster of Sheffield, Cutler. (Books of Corporation of Hallamshire.)

Coz. James Foljambe of Brampton, a supervisor of the will of Nicholas Grundy (?) of Thurgarton, Gent., 8 July 1627 ; proved at York.

Mr Foljambe of Brampton, a Disclaimer, 1662.

John Foljambe & Henry Foljambe witness the will of George Heathcote of Cutthorpe, 1636 or thereabouts.

Lee.

Mr John Milnes writes thus: John Lee, a barber at Sheffield—it was called “The Whig News-Shop”—took in the Whig Newspapers of those days. By his first wife he had John Lee who was put apprentice to a Cloth Merchant at Leeds by his second wife, & supplied by her with a Capital on establishing himself as a Merchant in that town. This second wife, by whom there was no issue, was a Great Aunt of the second Samuel Shore, dau. of Mary Shore afterwards Milnes, mother of Mr John Milnes, who says that he remembered portraits of this John Lee & his second wife, whom the old folks of that day used to call uncle & Aunt Lee when describing the old family pictures. Mr Milnes says he had this account from his late Uncle Shore, & has heard them confirmed by John Lee the lawyer.

This pedigree has been principally compiled by myself from information contained amongst the Milnes' papers. Mr Milnes was informed that the Lees of Chesterfield were of the same stock, & the Wards, whose pedigree is at page , have a tradition that their ancestor Miss Lee was of the same family with those at Chesterfield.

I believe the Attorney-General is wrongly placed, & that he was son of Thomas & Margaret, but then he could not have been b. in 1733.*

They are also supposed to be related to the Shores. (See will of Lydia Wright of Sheffield.)

Mr Milnes interposes a John Lee, the first settler at Leeds, father of Tho<sup>s</sup>, & I have no confidence in the children of this John Lee being of the Leeds family at all. The whole matter is very obscure.

This pedigree is given entirely as I find it among Mr Milnes' papers, to whom it must have been communicated by his friend Mr Blore. I have added only the marriage of Mary, dau. of George & Alice Gregson, as I found it among Brailsford's pedigrees. It is needless to say that the string in the upper part of the page is merely preserved to shew what was admitted by our earlier Heralds.

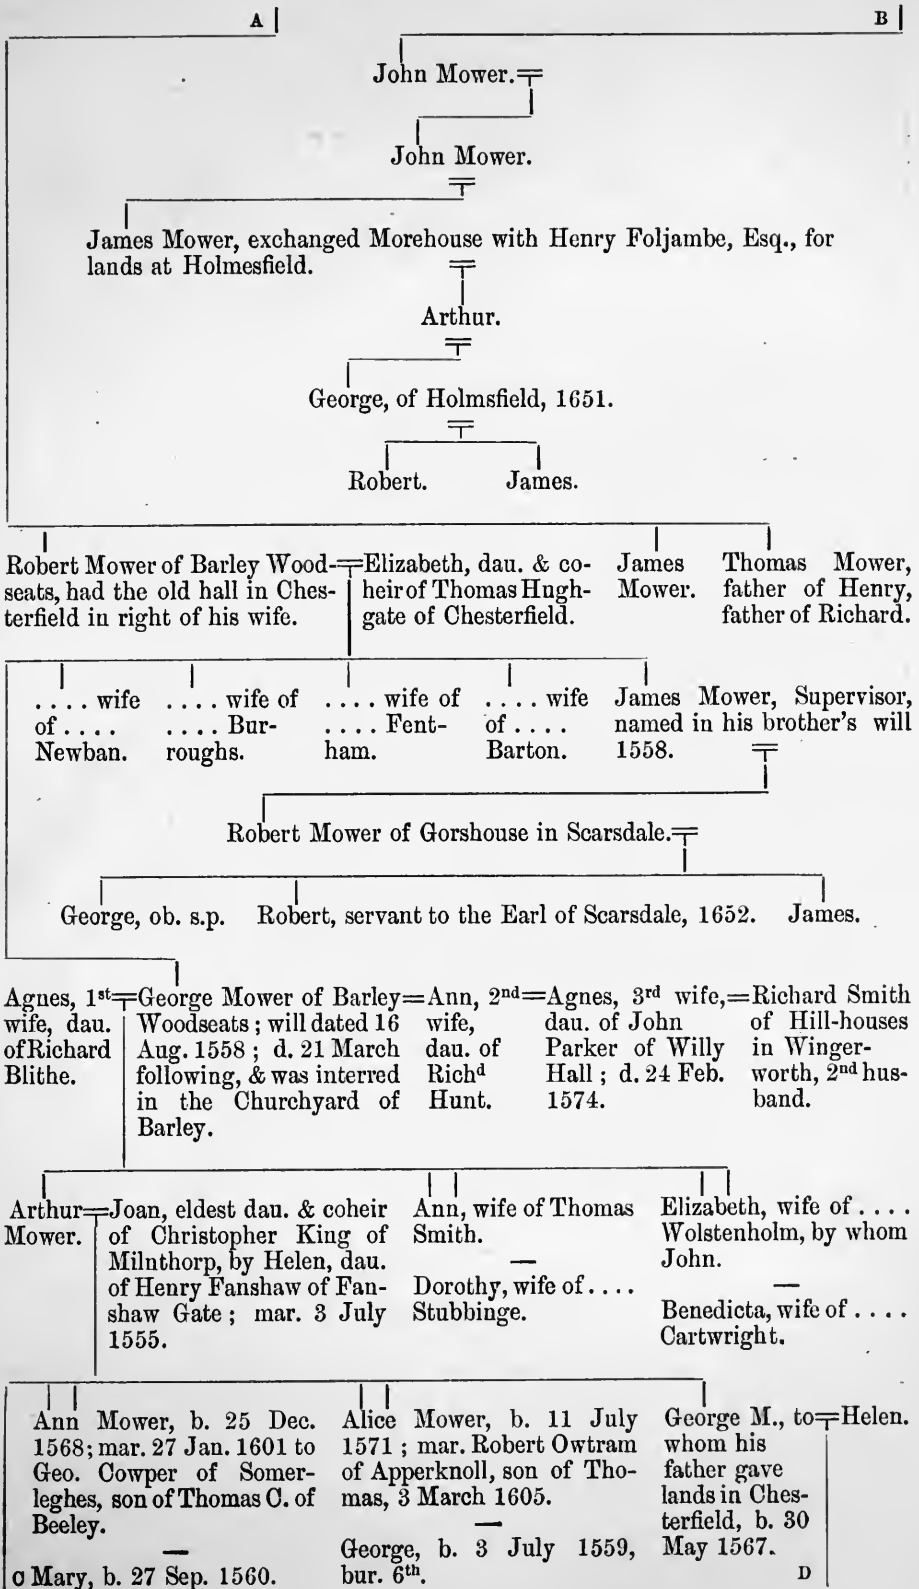

There is a genealogical inscription in the Church of Dronfield for the husbands of Jane Rogers. She & her husband, Laurence Bourne, sold Turnditch-hall to one Calton, then butler to Sir Nathaniel Curzon, whose representatives sold it in 1772 to Thomas Mottershaw, an upholsterer in Derby.

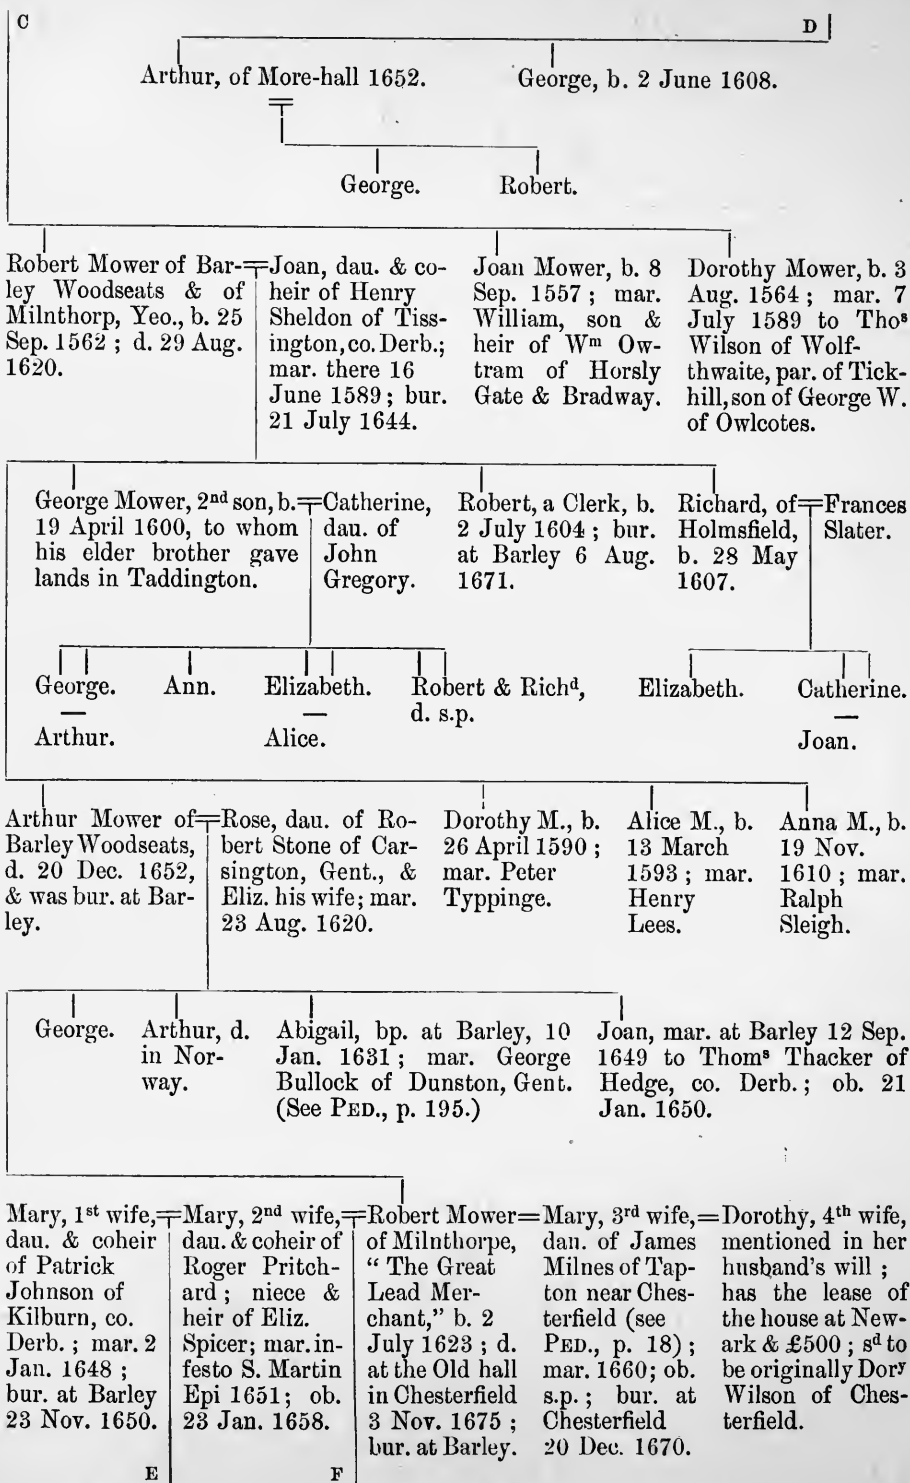

The Arms of Gregson are deserving of notice, Nevil, with a canton of Warren.

From Richard Gregson, 6th son of John by Margery Cubey, Matthew Gregson, now of Liverpool, Author of 'Fragments of Lancashire,' deduces his descent, as he has informed me by letter, 1821.

PROOFS AND ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE PEDIGREE OF MOWER.

M<sup>rs</sup> Mower of Woodseats, viz., Charlotte, wife of Robert, sent a copy of what appears to have been kept as a family tree to M<sup>r</sup> Milnes in 1807. She adds a few notes, and first:—

“According to tradition the first of the Mowers or Mores came over with William the Conqueror, or rather with him who was afterwards called the Lord of Barley. W<sup>m</sup> granted to De Barley the lands which form the present parish and lordship of Barlow, and De Barley gave to De More the site of the Little Hamlet now called More-hall, but antiently More-house, and the land adjacent. But of neither of these facts have I found any written documents.”

This is a rational account of the original of the De Mores, except that I rather suppose it will be found in Domesday-book that De Barley did not hold immediately of the Crown, and it is more probable if the first De Barley were himself a Norman, which I doubt, that the first of the De Mores was of Saxon original. So I conclude from their being such small sub infeudatories. M<sup>rs</sup> Mower goes on:

“The oldest writing which I can understand is a grant of the lands and Manor of Barley Woodseats from Marjory de Leheme to W<sup>m</sup> de More of that place. From this phrase & from the extent of the grant, being six or seven miles from East to West, I suspect that this was rather an extension of an old than a new grant. An extension of privileges I should take it to be, for the fee simple of all the lands within the boundary there described they never did nor could possess. This deed is dated 34 Edward III.”

In a later communication to Mr Milnes, M<sup>rs</sup> Mower says that she has since found among the family papers many deeds without dates which she supposes, and rightly, to be of an earlier age than this of Marjory de Leheme. I do not find that any abstracts have been made of them. One was of the De Cans (?) family with John de More witness.

The pedigree which she sent begins with Robert Mower, who stands at the head of the pedigree on the opposite page, and agrees with the account here given, but many particulars have been added from Brailsford's pedigrees, Vincent's, & other sources of information. I consider the main stock as described with much accuracy, which is more than I should venture to say of the Cadets. Robert Mower had Gorshouse, Lee Cliff house, and Cold Aston of his own inheritance, & acquired More-house & Barley Woodseats by his wife. The brother who had More-house was to pay to the elder brother as Lord of the Fee  $\frac{3}{4}$  yearly. But I observe M<sup>rs</sup> Mower has inverted the order in which they stand in the Pedigree, making Robert the elder brother & James the younger.

I find among Mr Milnes' Collections the following notices of Deeds of Mower:—

Jordan de Lees by deed s.d. granted to Roger Leheme & his heirs the M<sup>r</sup> of Barley Woodseats, with all lands, etc., in the village & fields of Barley Lees, etc. Witness, among others, John de Mora.

Roger Leheme by deed s.d. granted to William, son of William Smith, in frank marriage with Margery his daughter all that land with the edifices, etc., which Nicholas Underhill formerly held in Barley Woodseats. Witnesses, Jordan de Abetot de Barley, John de Mora, & others.

Roger de Mora was one of the witnesses to a grant 29 Edw. I. made by Robert, son of Jordan de Abetot, to Robert, son of William de Barley, of an oxgang of land in Barley.

William de Mora, Junior, of Barley Woodseats by deed dated 15 Ric. II. granted to Sir Roger de Chesterfield, Chaplain of Dronfield, all his lands and tenements in the parish of Dronfield, etc., which descended to him after the decease of Joan his mother. Witnesses, William de Mora, Senior, Roger de Mora, & others.

Roger de Chesterfield, Chaplain of Dronfield, by deed dated 8 Henry IV. granted to Joan de Mora of Barley Woodseats all the lands & tenements with the appurtenances which he had of the gift of William de Mora the younger, her late husband.

John, son of John de Riggeway of Barley by deed 3 Ric. II. granted to Roger de Mora all his lands, etc., in the fees of Staveley & Dronfield.

We have a curious and ample account of the family occurrences during the life of Arthur Mower, mar. in 1555, who recorded not only those but many other things which passed under his own eye in a MS. of which there is a copy amongst those papers which came to me from Mr Milnes.

Patrick Johnson of Kilbourn, Gent., 1624 = Pascha, dau. of George Pochin of Barkby, co. Linc.

D<sup>r</sup> Pegge relates that George Mower, the Sheriff in 1734, lived long a bachelor, & educated two nephews, Edmund and . . . one of these at the University of Cambridge, the other as an Attorney at Doncaster. Both misconducted themselves, whereupon the old gentleman thought proper to marry, and took the dau. of M<sup>r</sup> Rob. Watts of Barlow, with a small fortune. His first son d., then he had Robert, living in 1794. This Robert mar. first Miss Milnes, & had a dau. by her. After her death he took Hannah, the dau. of his tenant . . . Sharman of Apperknoll, for child's maid, & she being a pretty girl he sent her to a boarding school at Doncaster for education, intending to marry her, but afterwards he met with a Scotch lady at Harrowgate, & mar. her and had a son. On relinquishing Hannah Sharman it is said he gave her £200, and she mar. an officer in the Sea Service. [There is a trifling incorrectness. George Mower was not a bachelor, but a widower. The interval between the death of his first wife and his marriage with his second was 19 years.]

D<sup>r</sup> Pegge relates another love adventure of the Mowers. Robert Mower, father of the above George, ran away with Esther Taylor, the only child of George Taylor, Esq., of Durant Hall in Chesterfield. She was carried into Yorkshire. The person who actually carried her off was one Taylor, a butcher, afterwards an Alderman of Chesterfield. M<sup>r</sup> Mower's father prohibited his son from marrying her, & she was brought back. She afterwards mar. Charles Scrimshire, Esq., who is said to have made her but a bad husband.

Battie—Smith.

MS. 102

I am not acquainted with the evidence in which the first John Battie is said to be son of Robert & Isabella, nor of his 2 marriage. Robert is said to have been brother to the Grandfather of the M<sup>r</sup> Battie who took the name of Wrightson. Benjamin Taylor, son-in-law to John Battie, was bur. at Sheffield Dec. 25, 1715. The elder John Battie had a brother W<sup>m</sup> Battie, also an Att<sup>y</sup> at Sheffield, who mar. Ann Ward, sister to the wife of John, 27 Dec. 1719, & had W<sup>m</sup> B. of Hemsworth, who had dau. mar. to . . . Taylor, an Apothecary there, Elizabeth, Isabel, & others, who d. infants. But I do not vouch to all this.

NOTES BELONGING TO PAGE 104.

The earlier generations on this page are copied from C. 40, f. 132B, in the College of Arms. I think there were few persons who appeared at the Visitation who had less pretence to gentility than the two Francis Mortons, cousins. They were of antient descent, but it was a race of yeomanry, living on a small hereditary estate. The right to arms was, however, recognised. Francis, of Wraith-house, was brother-in-law to Dr Nathaniel Johnston, at whose suggestion he may have entered the Pedigree. Dr Morton was six & twenty, and had received a liberal education. If my recollection is correct the pedigree is carried up several generations higher. The name is very numerous in the Chapelry of Bradfield.

It remains to give an account of the materials from which the Visitation pedigree has been continued. And they are, first a letter from Joseph Hawksworth of Nether Bradfield, dated 15 Dec. 1775, when he was 83 years of age. It is addressed to Mr Wilson of Broomhead in reply to inquiries respecting the family; and secondly the information of Martha, wife of William Ronksley of Riveling Side, given to me 28 June 1811. She shewed me also various papers relating to the dispute respecting the succession to Spout-house on the extinction of the issue of Dr Thomas Morton, especially an answer to a bill in Chancery filed by her grandfather Francis Ronksley, by the five Deforciantes mentioned in the pedigree, which afforded the genealogy of the Wingfields.

The Ronksleys are antient yeomanry of the Chapelry of Bradfield. James, the first in the above pedigree, was a younger son of Francis, who d. in the lifetime of his father Nicholas Ronksley of Thornsett, yeo. Jonathan was his eldest brother. Nicholas had a brother Francis, whose son Isaac is named after Jonathan & James Ronksley in the entail of certain lands created by the will of Nicholas, which bears date 25 Dec. 1659. . . . Ronksley who founded the Chapel at Fullwood was of the family, & so was Ronksley of Sheffield, who mar. a Robert, as will appear on a future page.

Among the Collections of John Wilson of Broomhead, Esq., was the will of Nicholas Morton of Storth-House in Bradfield Chapelry, yeo. [son of Francis & brother of Dr Thomas Morton], in which he mentions his wife Jane, son-in-law Samuel Stead, nephew & niece Thomas & Eliz. Revel, nephew Francis Morton, nephew Francis Ronksley, to whom he leaves Storth-house, nephew Jonathan Ronksley. To the heirs of William Wingfield of Spout-house five shillings. To the children of Thomas Hawksworth, late of Dwarriden, now of Hornpit, parish of Peniston, except Thomas. Makes Thomas Hawksworth, Executor. Dated 4 April 11 Geo. I., 1725.

Among the Evidences of Tho<sup>s</sup> Rawson, Esq., of Wardsend is an Ind., 21 Oct. 1717, between Sarah, w. of Tho<sup>s</sup> Rawson of Ecclesfield, late of Wardsend, Tanner, of the 1st part, & Francis Ronksley of Riveling Side, Yeo., nephew of the said Sarah, on the other, by which she settles £500 on him. She was Sarah Morton of Oughtibridge, widow, when she mar. Rawson.

Frances, dau. of Edward Pegge of Beauchief, Gent.; d. 1 May 1732, aged 67, & was bur. at Chesterfield.

The principal authority for this account of the Taylors is a set of monuments with long biographical inscriptions which were (and perhaps still are) in the Churches of Ashburn & Chesterfield. The inscription on the first Paul Webster I remember reading in the Church of Chesterfield. It was very circumstantial. Those at Ashburn I read in a Volume of 'Derbyshire Church Notes' at the house of Mr Daniel Dakeyne, the same collection which is quoted in Lysons's 'Derbyshire' as Bassano's 'Church Notes.' At the Visitation of 1662 George Taylor gave no account of his ancestors.

Columbell—Thornhill.

This pedigree seems formed on the basis of a Visitation pedigree, & to have been continued by M<sup>r</sup> Milnes' friend M<sup>r</sup> Blore. I have copied it as it appears among M<sup>r</sup> Milnes' Papers, where are many extracts from the Darley Register of this family, some of which relate to persons whose names do not appear in the pedigree.

Morton.

Copied from a roll belonging to one of the family compiled about the year 1730. All additions from other sources of information are enclosed in brackets. I have my doubts whether it has been accurately transcribed in the copy before me. Compare M. P. B., iv., 31.

The roll, of which this is a copy, appears to have been the family tree, as I have heard such records called. It was probably usual in families who possessed one to have it transcribed from time to time with such additions as time had produced. The transcript from which this is a copy was made after the birth of Winifred & before her marriage, therefore about 1730. It may fairly be taken as good authority for the descendants of her great-grandfather Nicholas M., Rector of St. Saviour's.

This is indeed the most interesting part of the Pedigree, the rest being for the most part to be found in printed works. Those generations I apprehend never appeared in any publication, nor were they ever entered at the College of Arms. Yet the first Charles, the Rector of Blisland, was a remarkable character. There is some account of the Mortons of Dorsetshire in the 'Baronetage' of 1720, agreeing with the account here given. No descendants remain of Winifred Milnes.

Bagshaw.

MS. 108

This is Brailsford's pedigree of Bagshaw with continuations. He thus attests it: "This from a copy and some papers in the custody of William Bagshaw of Ford; a great part whereof I have examined by some aged neighbours thereabout and is truth."

But the earlier descents are taken from a 'Visitation of Staffordshire, 1583,' certified by Nicholas Bagshaw, with the Arms as usually borne. It contains his 2 dau<sup>s</sup>, the 2nd of whom in my copy, Harl. 1995, f. 57, is called Nazareth. His brothers are stated: Edward, William, Osmund, & Thomas. No wife given to Edward. I very much doubt Brailsford's deduction of W<sup>m</sup> B. of Hucklow from that Edward. The time does not allow so many generations.

See Notes of Abney & of Bagshaw, M. P. B., xii., 100, 114.

Perfect.

The Perfects were, I believe, Cultivators of Liquorice, a plant for which the neighbourhood of Pontefract has been long celebrated.

This account of them is from Brooke's papers, but wants corrections.

Oates—Crowder.

It has happened to this family to have become connected with three persons who employed themselves in topographical & genealogical inquiries, viz., John Brooke, the Rector of High Hoyland, John Charles Brooke, Esq., Somerset Herald, who was a great-grandson of Mary, wife of William Brooke, and John Wilson of Bloomhead, Esq. They all did something for the pedigree, & their collections have been used in these three pages, but there is a living member of the family who has laboured more effectually than any of them to bring together the evidences & to compile the pedigree. This is Mr Edward Oates, son of Joseph Oates, Esq., on the next page I was the means of obtaining for him access to the evidences of this family in the Collection of the late Mr Wilson, & these formed the principal authority for the elder generations when he registered this pedigree in the College of Arms. This he did about the year 1815, when a grant of Coat-armour was made to all the descendants of Joseph Oates & Mary Fenton. This was said to be the most extensive grant that the late Earl Marshal allowed to pass, & he was induced to pass it in consequence of having been personally acquainted with Mr Hamer Oates when his Grace commanded the West York Militia. Before that time the family had used Or or Argent, 2 bends azure, a canton ermine, which are the Arms of the old family of Fitz-Othes. These are given to them in Warburton's Map. What they now bear may be seen in 'Loidis and Elmete,' where is a good pedigree, principally of the Leeds branch of the family, communicated to that work by Mr Edward Oates. The substance of that pedigree is here transcribed, but many important matters will here be found in addition. I have followed throughout the pedigree as finally settled by my friend Mr Edward Oates. July, 1821.

Arms of Crowther, Per pale azure & gules, a bend wavy vair or & azure between 2 bombs argent fixed proper.

Oates, Argent, 2 bendlets engrailed, in sinister chief point a cross-crosslet azure & canton ermine, in base a chanticleere.

Foster, Argent, on a fess vert between 3 pheons sable 2 roses argent.

Will of Thomas Oates of Morley, psh. of Batley, husbandman, dated 19 Nov. 1608. Son Ralph, wife Ellen, dau<sup>s</sup> Dorothy and Jane, son Peter Jackson, son Thomas Greathead & his 4 children, son William Oates, son George Oates, nephew John Oates. Father Robert Oates, Executor. Proved 8 June 1616.

Captain Thomas Oates of Morley was executed for the Yorkshire Plot of 1662. The principal evidence against him was his son Ralph Oates, a Clergyman & Rector of Smeaton parva, where he lies buried. It is remarkable that Major Greathead (who appears to have been related to the Oates) was an Approver in that sad business.

In the Cathedral of Lincoln there is a monument for Elizabeth, only dau. of Richard Oates of Pontefract, wife of W<sup>m</sup> York of Lessingham. Ob. Frid. Cal., March 1740. Arms, Gules, a bend argt. between 3 garbs or.

Fenton.

The basis of this pedigree is one compiled by Somerset Brooke. To this Mr Edward Oates made some additions, which he gave me in 1816. I have added a very few particulars. I have reason to believe that it is correct as far as it goes, except that it appears to me there is some error at the beginning of the Underbank line. I see no probability in the first Fenton of Underbank being b. in 1685, while his sister, wife of . . . . Oates, was mar. in 1671. There have been also other Fentons of this family, as Eli Fenton, son of William Fenton of Pudsey, who on 29 Dec. 1704 mar. a dau. of Dr Gilpin of Newcastle, widow of Dr Kaye of the same. She d. in Newcastle in April 1708 of her third child by Fenton. I have no doubt that a dau. of Thomas Fenton who mar. Michael Bairstow was of this family, and in 1807 I knew a Mrs Bridgland, then living at Sheffield, who said that she was the youngest of 13 children of Abraham Fenton, by Alice Hutchinson his wife, which Abraham was son to a Fenton of Leeds, of this family youngest of 10, who was bur. at Royston. She had in her possession an old copy of the 'Ducatus,' which she valued as containing notices of her family.

SOME ACCOUNT OF THE DESCENDANTS OF SIR NICHOLAS STRELLEY.

For "Brailsford" in what follows read "Bassano."

Sir Nicholas Strelley of Strelley in the county of Nottingham was thrice mar., 1st to Grace, dau. of Simon Digby; 2 Ellen, dau. of Sir Thomas Gresley; 3 Elizabeth, dau. of John Spencer, as it stands in Vincent, to which Thoroton adds that he was a Knight. It appears from Vincent's pedigree that all the children were by the last wife, & Thoroton makes the eldest son and one of the younger children by his last wife, as also does Brailsford in his Derbyshire Pedigrees.

The issue of Sir Nicholas, as stated in Vincent, was 4 sons & 4 dau<sup>s</sup>, the dau<sup>s</sup> were Alice, wife of Sir John Biron, Margaret, Jane, wife of Sir ... Willoughby, & 2nd of Thomas Shelton or Skelton of the county of Suffolk, and Isabel.

* Anne. † The great Lord Clive. ‡ Sarah, mar. Sir John Markham.
 § The 13th Lord Sempill mar. Maria Mellish and had a son Selkirk, 14th Lord, who d. unmar. 1835. He was succeeded by his sister Maria Janet, Baroness Sempill, who mar. Edward Candler, Esq. (see 'Peerage').—J. W. C.

The sons were :—

I. Anthony, who was a Knight and owner of Strelley. He was aged 32 at his father's death in 3 Eliz., and was therefore born in or about 1528. He mar. Joan, dau. of Sir George Bainham of the County of Gloucester, by whom he had a large family, but three of whom are mentioned by Thoroton or Brailsford. I shall give them as they stand in Vincent.

1. Sir Philip, who d. 29 Sep. 1606. He mar. Elizabeth, dau. & heir of Thomas Garneys or Garnish of the County of Norfolk, by whom he had Nicholas, his only child, who mar. a dau. of Willoughby of Wollaton, & d. without issue. Thoroton does not mention his marriage.

2, 3, & 4. Henry, Nicholas, & Anthony, who all d. without issue.

5. George Strelley. Vincent says that he d. without legitimate issue, but had a son named Nicholas by Ann Martin. Brailsford, on the contrary, makes this Nicholas the legitimate son & heir of George by Elizabeth, dau. of . . . Aldred of Colwiche, and so does Thoroton. All agree that Nicholas mar. Elizabeth, dau. of Gervas Russell, & that she surviving took to her second husband Sir Richard Byron, Lord Byron. To Strelley she bore a son whom Brailsford calls John, but Vincent & Thoroton, George. All agree that he was the only son, & that he d. in France unmar. or without issue. (See York Wills, 678.)

6. Francis Strelley, who d. without issue 15 May 1616 & was bur. at Lambeth. He mar. a sister of Sir Hugh Willoughby of Wollaton, who took Sir George Peckham to her second husband.

All the male issue of Sir Anthony was thus extinguished. He had two dau<sup>s</sup>, Mary, who d. without issue, and Eleanora, whom all accounts agree in stating to have been heiress to this the eldest branch of the family, & to have mar. Sir John Michel of Ansty in the co. of Sussex, a Master in Chancery. There was issue.

II. Nicholas, who was of Beauchief Abbey in the County of Derby. Of his descendants there is an account in 'Hallamshire,' p. 199. To which I now add that M<sup>rs</sup> Anne Strelley, one of the dau<sup>s</sup> of Gervas by his first wife, being then of Langmar in Notts, attendant on the Countess of Sunderland, purchased of one Nathaniel Digby an estate at Abb-Kettleby in Leicestershire for £400, & another close there in 1652. In 1657, being then of Beauchief, she leased the estate for 21 years, & in 1660 made her will, by which she gives her property to Goodeth Edmunds her sister, subject to an annuity to her kinsman John Strelley, son of Henry Strelley of Hemsall in Notts. In 1665 Goodeth Edmunds gave her estate as follows : that if John Strelley, son of Henry, was dead, as she was credibly informed, and died before her said sister Anne, then she gave to Nicholas Strelley her kinsman £10 a year, & £10 a year to Ann his wife for life, & if she survived her husband & kept herself a widow she was to have £20. Then gave the whole estate at Kettleby to Nicholas, the son of the said Nicholas Strelley & the heirs of his body, with remainder to any brothers he might have. These two ladies seem to have outlived all the males of their branch of the family, & to have made this bequest to keep up the family.

III. John. He mar. Ann, another of the dau<sup>s</sup> of Sir George Bainham, by whom he had Nicholas, mentioned only by Vincent, & who probably d. young, and William, who continued the line. Thoroton and Brailsford gives his wife Margaret Jenkinson, but Vincent has her name Margery, dau. of Richard Stone, unless, as I suspect, the transcript sent to me is erroneous. He had issue, according to Thoroton & Brailsford, who has copied him five sons, Nicholas, John, Francis, Vincent, and William, of whom no account is given but of the first. I find, however, in Vincent, that Vincent & William d. without issue, that Francis, by Elizabeth Abkis (?) his wife, had a dau. & heir Ann in 1661, and that John was a Serjeant-Major in the Parliament Army, mar. Cassandra Howes, and d. without issue. Vincent says there were also 2 dau<sup>s</sup> of William, Ann & Penelope, who both d. without issue. It remains to speak of Nicholas, the eldest son of William.

On the extinction of the eldest branch, the second being extinct also, he made claim to the estate of Strelley as lineal heir male of his great-grandfather Sir Nicholas, & was some time in possession, but he was at last ousted, I suppose, by the representatives of Eleanora Michal. He then lived in Nottingham upon some ingenious manufactures in Glass, which he spun and ordered very commendably. It was to him that Mr<sup>s</sup> Edmunds left the £10 a year charged on the Leicestershire Estate, & to his son that the estate itself was left. He was living at Nottingham in 1672 when Thoroton published. His wife was Ann, dau. of Francis Tilman of Kent. By her he had Nicholas, Gervas, and Ann, according to Thoresby. Vincent now fails us, but Brailsford begins to be more particular and interesting. To the three children he adds a fourth Amye, woman to Madam Ann Pierrepoint, mar. to . . . Newport, Esq. He also states that Ann mar. William Sherwood of Long Walton, co. Leic. The two sons Nicholas and Gervas had both issue.

Nicholas was living at Nottingham in 1709 when he granted a lease of the estate of Kettleby. In that year, according to Brailsford, he was 60 years of age, "a great manager of the same art in glass as his father Nicholas had done." By . . . Hallam his wife, dan. of George Hallam of Notts, he had Philip, aged 15, 1709, Ann, aged 11, George, aged 3, & John, aged 1 year. In some notes respecting this family three other dan<sup>s</sup>, Mary, Catherine, & Elizabeth, are added. These might be born after Brailsford's account was compiled, but are not in his will 25 May 1719. On 10 July 1773 Elizabeth Strelley of Nottingham, Spinster, heir in tail of Nicholas, leased the Kettleby estate, & in 1785 made her will. As by that will this estate passed to the descendants of her uncle Gervas Strelley, I conclude that she was the last surviving issue of Nicholas. She is said to be the last of her family on her Mon. in St. Marys. Gervas was also of Nottingham. He mar. Ann, dau. of Thomas Balguy of Aston, co. Derb., by whom he had Gervas and Anne. Here Brailsford ends his account, but I have received from the descendants of Gervas this account, that he mar. and had a daughter and heir Mary who was twice married, first to . . . Denham, and 2<sup>dly</sup> to Richard Hardy. By Denham she had one dau. only, Ann, who mar. Jos. Elliott. By Hardy she had also an only dau., Mary, who mar. . . . Frost. William Elliott and Bartholomew Frost were the issue, and they have lately sold the estate at Kettleby. (See in the branch Woolley's Collections, Add. 6676.)

iv. Henry. I find him only in Vincent. He mar. Jane, dau. of George Charnley of Charnley, co. Lanc., by whom he had a son John, who was living at Hemsall in co. Notts 1614. He was then mar. to Ann, dau. of Patrick Sacheverel, and had 5 sons, John, aged 22, Henry, George, Patrick, and Francis. Of these sons I know of none but Henry, who was of Hemsall, and mar. Rosamund, dau. of John Parker of Norton Lees. This I have from the Parker pedigree. The baptism of a son of this marriage, named John, is recorded at Norton 12 May 1628. This John, by the description of John, son of Henry Strelley of Hemsall in Notts, is mentioned in the will of Ann Strelley, & afterwards of Goodeth Edmunds before mentioned, but in Harl. 1555 we have John, of Hemsall, shewn as son of John, 3 son of Sir Nicholas, mar. Sacheverel, & has Henry, Patrick, George, & Mary, who mar. 1 John Martin of Wilcot, & 2 Richard Holland of Eastwood, both Clerks. Henry mar. Parker, & has W<sup>m</sup>. Patrick mar. B C

The earlier parts of this pedigree are copied from a history of the family of Wingfield of Stanley, & its connections drawn up by D<sup>r</sup> Pegge of Whittington for his relation Robert Newton, Esq. When I saw it in 1813 it was in the hands of M<sup>r</sup> Orange. I do not recollect that D<sup>r</sup> Pegge investigated the descent of Humphry Wingfield, but M<sup>r</sup> Blore, in a letter which I had from him in 1808, conjectures with great seeming probability that he is the Humphry W. who appears in a Visitation of Suffolk, aged 25, 1612, son of Anthony W. by Thomazine, dau. & heir of Robert Pennicuike of Yorkshire, Esq., which Anthony was 4th son of Robert, of Brantham-hall, co. Suffolk, Esq., eldest son of Sir Humphry of the same place, 12th son of Sir John Wingfield of Letheringham, Kn<sup>t</sup>, by Elizabeth Fitz-Lewis his wife.

M<sup>r</sup> Wildman, who mar. Priscilla Wingfield, was an apothecary in King Street, Cheapside, son of Samuel Wildman, an apothecary at Sheffield, who had also another son Watkinson Wildman, a goldsmith in London, father of Samuel, also a goldsmith. There were other children of the first Samuel, whose names may be found in the parish Register of Sheffield.

The issue of German Pole and Margaret Wingfield was 2 sons & 2 dau<sup>s</sup>, all of whom d. unmar.

Bohun.

This is Dr Pegge's account of the family of Mary Bohun, wife of Joseph Offley. He says that the bulk of the property of the last Edmund Bohun went to his brother Nicholas, or William, or to one of their issue. It was entailed on Mary, wife of Offley, but the entail being cut off it went to . . . Brown, half-brother to the last of the Bohuns, who d. about 1770. Mr Offley had however considerable property in Suffolk with his wife. The continuation from W<sup>m</sup> Bohun, M.D., I received from the Rev. Thomas Leman of Bath, who had it from Mr Le Gryce Bohun 1824. The arms are, Gules, a crescent ermine between 8 martlets or.

Heathcote—Kodes.

The beginning of this pedigree is taken from M<sup>rs</sup> Shaw's 'Tombstone,' a biographical work on the life of M<sup>rs</sup>. Dorothy Shaw. That George Heathcote who mar. Lydia Clarke was her nephew is assumed on conjecture. Of her four brothers one only was living in 1657, who had been a Captain in the Army, and was then in Ireland. I can hardly suppose that he was the George who mar. Lydia Clarke, and it is evident that he was not one of the other three. But his possession of the Estate at Cutthorp and similarity of religious belief shews that he was a relation of M<sup>rs</sup> Shaw.

Brook states the early generations thus :—

There was another John Shaw of Hall-broom, as appears by the following pedigree.

Stead.

The earlier generations are from the Collection of John Brooke, rector of High Hoyland, great-grandfather of John Charles Brooke, to which some dates are added by Mr Wilson of Broomhead, who continued the pedigree.

Emote, the mother of John Shaw in the preceding pedigree, it will be observed is wanting.

I find also the following among the Collections of Mr Wilson ;—

John de le Stede in par. of Wyntworth 1419. [I have not met with this name.]

Who was Nicholas Stead of Onesacre & Ann his wife 11 Car. I., also in 1638 nephew to Nicholas Bromhead of Thornsett ?

<sup>1</sup> Peter de Stede of Wyntworth occurs 11 Rich. II., & Peter Stede of Onesacre in connection with the same transaction 10 H. 4. The same person.

<sup>2</sup> I believe this Richard should be Nicholas, as it appears by the Court Rolle at Sheffield that Nicholas Stead, 3. Ed. 6, had 2 sons Arthur & Nicholas.

This ped., with that at p. 268, takes up everything that is known of Stead, and is beautifully supported by evidence.

I think there is not time for this Nicholas Stead, but that the next Nicholas was the successor (perhaps son) of Richard, who appears 7 Eliz. of Onesacre. He is named in 1581 as husband of Margery, dan. of Jennet Ibbotson. Could this be Margaret Revel, but see York Wills 179.

<sup>1</sup> Dionysia must have been a first wife of Nicholas, & had by him Thomas her son & heir, of whom I perceive no further mention. She was dead 33 Eliz., when the Inq. p.m. of her father was taken 1590. I now am persuaded that Thomas Stead was the person of that name from whom the Steads of Comber descended, as at p. 268. The accounts of the early generations of this family in public & private Collections of Genealogy vary, as may be seen by comparing this pedigree with that given in 'Hallamshire,' p. 236. Here I have followed the pedigree entered at the Visitation of 1662. In 'Hallamshire' I have given the descent as it was understood to be by Mr. Blore, who followed, as I believe, an account of the family which was in the possession of Edward Burton of Chesterfield, & probably compiled by his relation Michael Burton of Holmesfield, who appears to have had a turn for these enquiries. A copy of that pedigree I remember to have seen among Mr Wilson's Collections.

The additions to the Visitation pedigree both on the right & left hand have been made by Mr Blore & myself from the usual authorities, and I make no doubt that they will stand the test of future investigation. The most material point in the additions of William of Holmesfield below, who is entirely omitted (as well as Godfrey) in the Visitation pedigree of 1662. I know not whether he appears in that of 1634. The monumental inscription of this William still exists among the other Burtons in the Church of Dronfield, and the memorial which is transcribed in the next column shews a relationship between his descendants & the family of Thomas of Fanshaw Gate.

<sup>1</sup> The father of Hugh Wood was John, who mar. Martha, dau. & h. of John Wilson of Heanor. They had a dau. Martha, mar. Henry Evans of Caldwell, Esq. See more of descent of Wood, M. P. B., ix., 207; said to descend of Tho. Wood who was Mayor of Pontefract in 1665.

"This Holy Bible was the Chappel Bible of the Chappel of Lindley in the County of Leicester, being one of the seats belonging to the antient family of the Burtons of Lindley and of Tutbury and Fald in the County of Stafford, lineally descended from Robert de Burton, Lord de Francton in the County of Warwick, and Ibbetstock in the County of Leicester, in the reign of William the Conqueror, & was given unto me, Michael Burton of Holmesfield & Wirksworth in the County of Derby, lineally descended from the said Robert and from Sir James Burton, by my dear and ever honoured relative and friend Ralph Burton, Lord of Dronfield in the County of Derby, Gentleman, also lineally descended from the said antient family of Burtons." This Bible evidently came into possession of Ralph Burton through his mother the dau. & heir of Cassibelan Burton.

The MS. of Leicestershire Tenures, in possession of Rev. Edward Goodwin of Sheffield, had belonged to Burton the Historian of Leicestershire, & probably came to him from some member of this family.

See also in the Preface to Mr Singer's Edit. of Cavendish's 'Life of Wolsey' a notice of a MS. of that work which belonged to Clement Rossington, who d. in 1737.

Pole.

The Visitations of 1634 & 1663 supply the basis of this pedigree. The continuation on the right is from the Monument at Barlborough & Dr Pegge's MS. of the Wingfield family. The continuation of the Spink-hill branch is from Mr Blore's Collections. The . . . . Pole who is mentioned p. 74 is supposed to have been of this family. He was b. about 1730, & was a near relation to . . . Pole who mar. Dennis Nevile, son of John Nevile of Thorney, Esq. See below. See a mar. at p. 110.

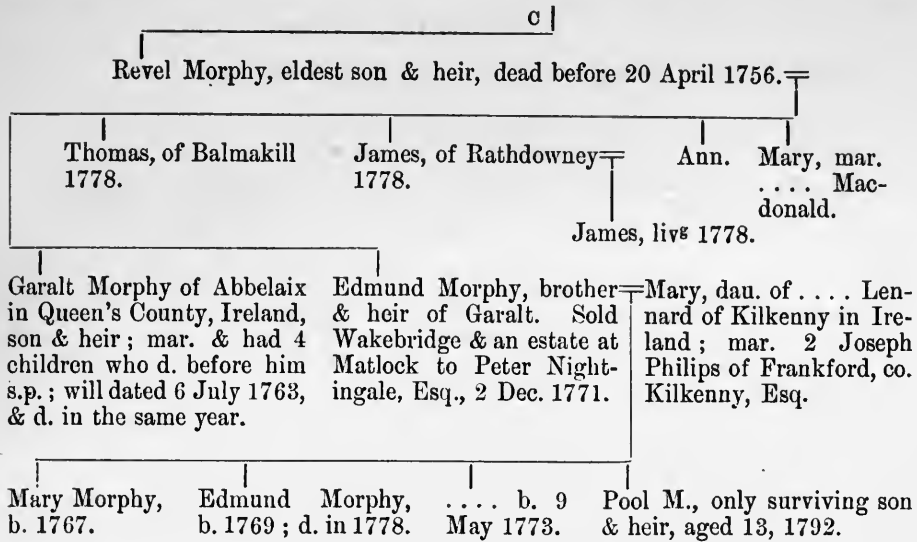

Who was Francis Poole, Gent., who about 1590 mar. Juliana, one of the 5 dau<sup>s</sup>, etc., of Thomas Wombwell of Thundercliffe? See a pedigree in Glover's 'Derbyshire,' ii. (356). See M. P. B., v., 42.

John Pole of Wakebridge, co. Derb., descended of Sir John Pole of Newboro', by Cecily, dau. & heir of Wil<sup>m</sup> Wakebridge.

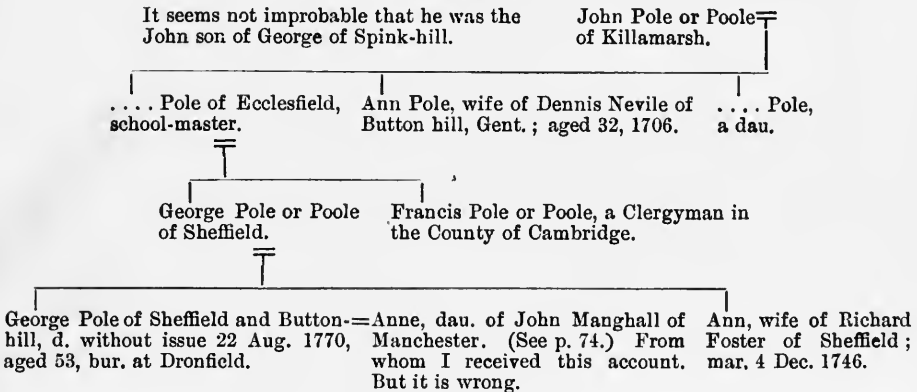

This is wrong.

From the Deanery Books at York, I find that the will of Francis Poole of Ecclesfield was proved by Francis and John Poole, his Executors, 5 July 1722.

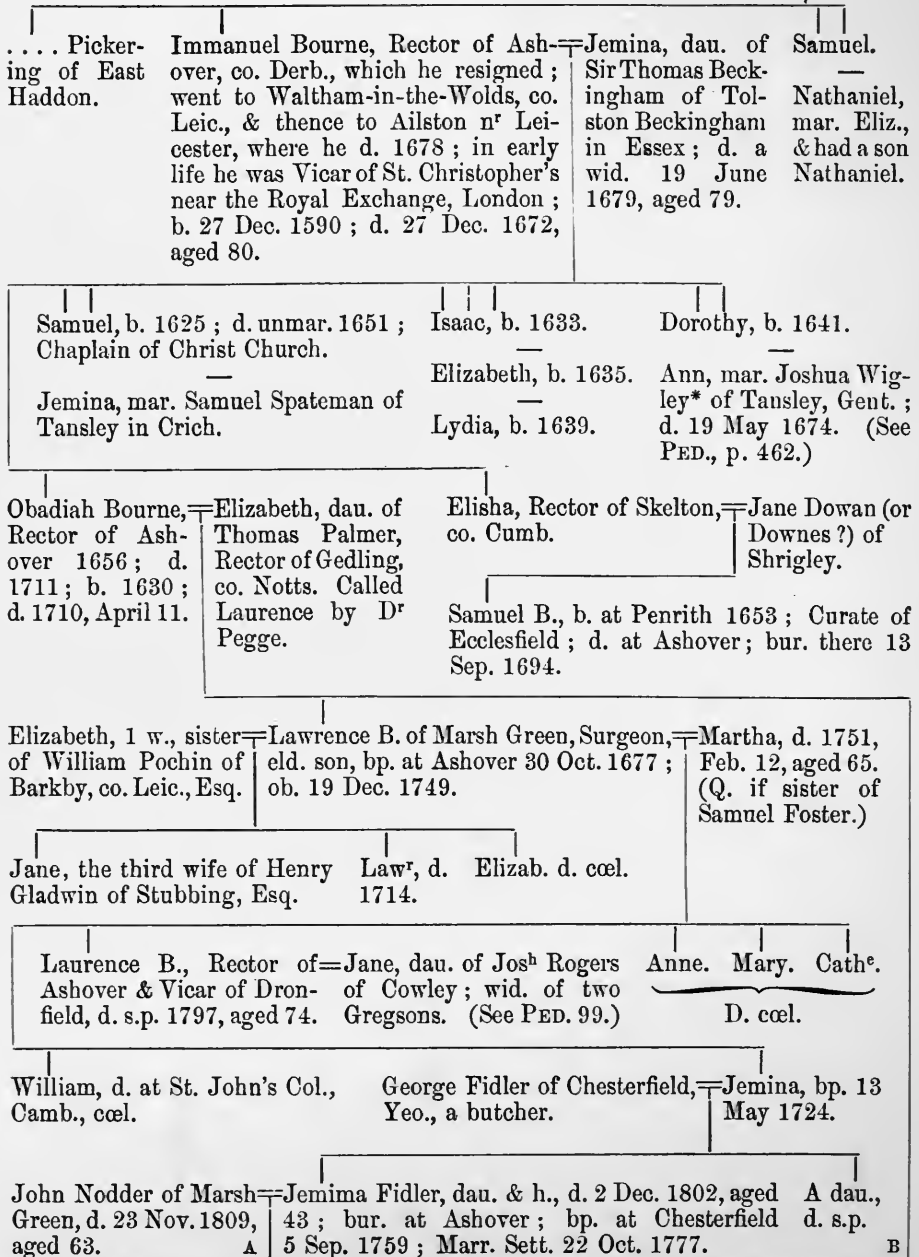

Concerning the Morphys, I have seen the brief in a cause, Lord George Howard against Richard Revel & other Defendants who had assisted Edmund Morphy in an escape from the Bailiff of Hallamshire, when arrested at the suit of said Lord George for £65. This was in 1695. He complains that he had lost all chance of recovering his debt.

Bourne.

Vicar

Henry Bourne, Rector of East Haddon, co. Northamp., d. 1649. =

* In the MS., p. 462, it states that Joshua Wigley mar. Ann, dau. of Samuel Spateman and Jemima Bourne, so this must be an error.—J. W. C.

<sup>1</sup> This Tho. Clarke was b. 1723, son of W<sup>m</sup> C., a mercer in Chesterfield, by his 2nd wife, a dau. of Roberts of Derby. S<sup>t</sup> Tho. had a bro. William, a clerk, & 2 sisters, one mar. to Charles Staniforth, a surgeon at Chesterfield, the other to Macklin of Derby, who changed his name to . . . . The 1st wife of W<sup>m</sup>, the mercer, was a dau. of Mower, wid. of Porter.

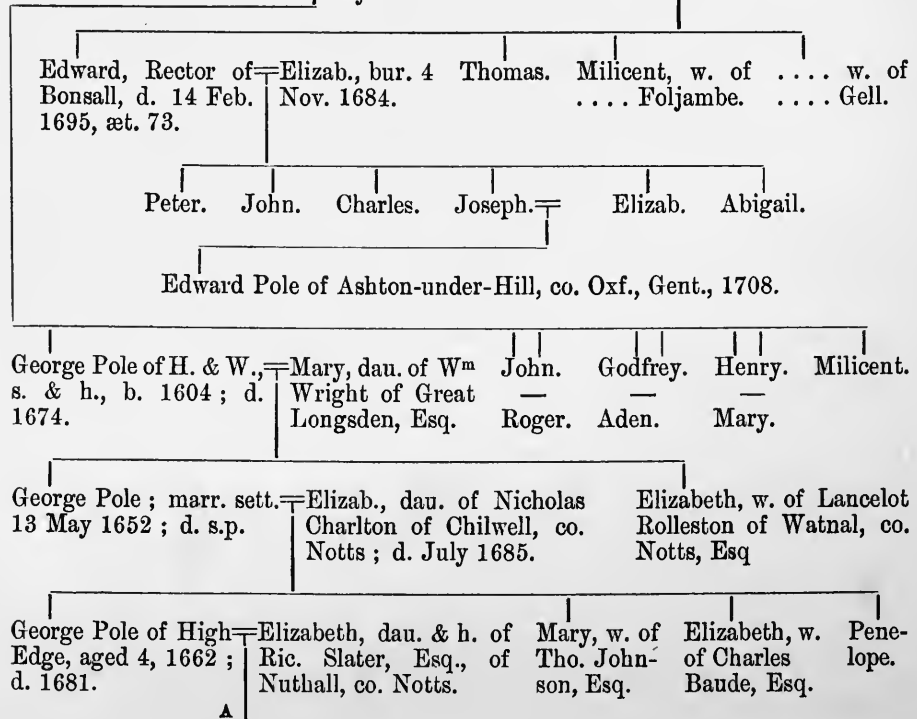

<sup>2</sup> Son of Rob. W. of Staveley, a soapboiler, by Sarah his wife, dau. of Tho. Webster, an Ald. of Chesterfield & a tanner. Rob<sup>t</sup> had a sister Mary, wife of Geo. Mower, & a brother Godfrey W. of Barlow, also by Eliz., dau. of Godfrey Webster of Chesterfield, tanner, had Godfrey & a dau.

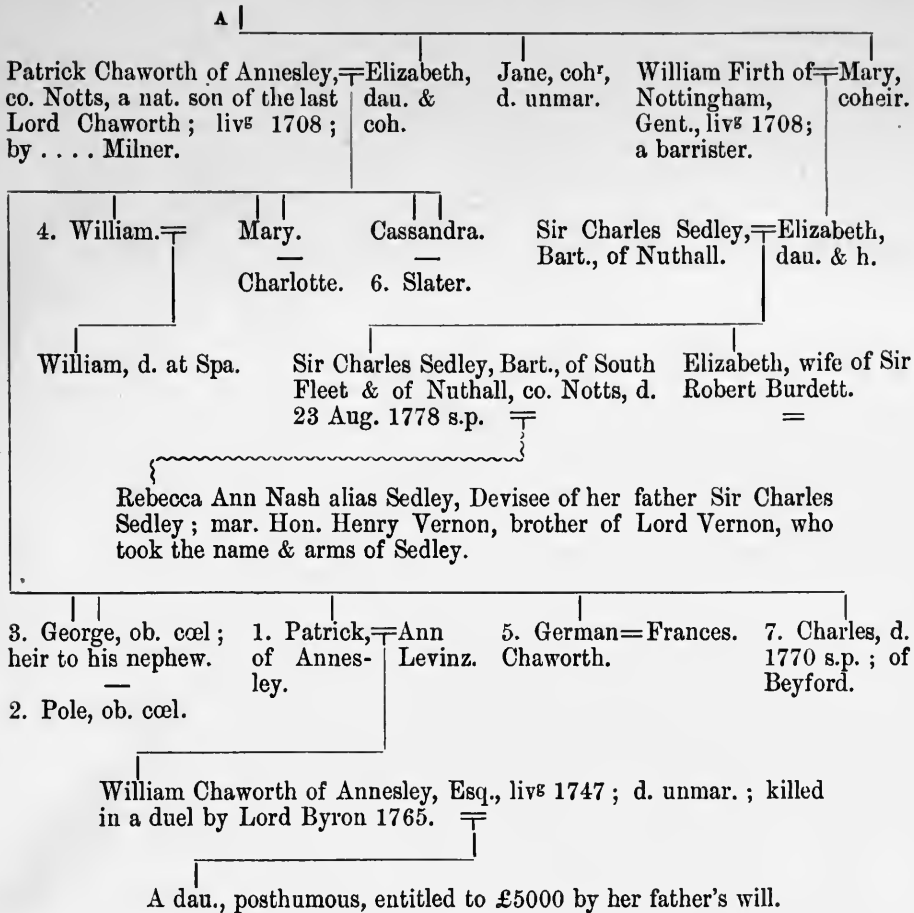

Mr John Billingsley, Parson of Addingham in Cumb., mar. Mary Bourne 1652.

Pole—Chaworth.

Eliz., 1 w., dau. of Richard Parkyns of Bunney. = Godfrey Pole of High Edge & Whittington, 2nd son of Godfrey. = Ellen, 2nd w., liv<sup>g</sup> at Ripley 1673.

This, which I have from the Collections of M<sup>r</sup> Samuel Mitchell, copied I believe from M<sup>r</sup> Blore's, differs materially from the Visitation pedigree, C. 34, f. 78, which follows:—

See will of George Pole of Hedge 1673, M. P. B., xiii., 94. He appears to have been a Puritan.

* His will, dated June 9, proved at London Oct. 7, 1659, is printed in the Record Series, Yorks. Arch. Soc., vol. ix., 155. He mentions seven daughters besides daughter Tomlinson not in the above pedigree, and wife Elizabeth.

† Mr. Hunter must be wrong in placing Robert, John, Margaret, and Alice as children of John Carleil and Jane Hardy, as the dates do not fit. I have the following entries from Hilston Reg. :—1664, Sep. 1, Randolphus, s. John Carlyle and Jane his wife, bp. 1666, Aug. 14, M<sup>r</sup> John Carlyle, bur.—J. W. C.

The basis of this Pedigree is the Visitation of 1665. The Register dates are from Burlington, supplied by Nicholas Carlisle, Esq., Secretary to the Society of Antiquaries, who has sent me also the continuation obtained from M<sup>r</sup> Carleill of Longston Hall, supported by Wills & other documents. The four sisters of Tristram are from the Register only, but a Visitation Pedigree of Hunter fixes one of them as a dau. of John Carleill. The present M<sup>r</sup> Carleill is Lord of the Manor of Little Hucklow, and a Deputy-Lieut. for Derbyshire. The Mansion & Lordship of Sewerby have been sold to the Greames. M<sup>r</sup> Carleill has still about 100 acres there.

1665 M<sup>rs</sup> Ruth Carliell bur. in the South Quier 18 July.

1690 Catherine, daughter of M<sup>rs</sup> Carleil, 26 March.

There appears to have been another family of the name of Carleill settled at Sewerby, for by an Inquisition taken at the Castle of York on the 20th of July in the 22 of James I., 1625, after the death of John Carlele, late of Sewerby, Esq., it was found that he d. seised of a Capital Messuage and 20 oxgange of land in Sewerby and Marton, that he d. on the 18th of December in the 18 of James I., 1621; and that William Carleile was his son and heir, aged at the time of his father's death 30 years & upwards. From Inq. p.m. in Rolls Chapel.

By Inquisition taken at Beverley 11 Jan. 1639, p.m., Frances Carlill of Brands Burton, late wife of Tho<sup>s</sup> C. of the same, found that she d. seised of a Capital Messuage there and another at Walkington with lands at many places about, that she d. on 14th April 1620 when Francis was her son & next heir, aged 22. In Dugdale's Visitation appears Richard Manby of Middleton, aged 38, mar. to Frances dau. of Francis Carleill of Brands Burton who mar. Elizabeth by whom he had Mary, aged 9, and Frances, aged 6. In the same Visitation mention is made of Salveyn Carleile of Brands Burton who mar. Elizabeth third daughter of Michael Warton of Beverley (by Catherine daughter and coheir of Christopher Maltby), slain at Scarboro Castle 1645, his father then living, which S. C. had a son Michael, bp. at Burlington 14 May 1654, & bur. in the Church there the day following. Elizabeth was also bur. in the S. Choir of the Church there 29 June 1668, which seems to shew that there was a connection between the two houses of Sewerby & Brands Burton.

The name is antient in the County of York. Cecily, late wife of Thomas de Carleol of Bootham, granted to the Monks of St. Mary's all the messuage within the liberty of St. Mary of Bootham. (Drake, p. 583.) By Placita de Quo Warranto 1280 Laurence de Kerliolo was a juror in the case of the provost of Beverley who claimed to have free warren in Dalton.

The Arms of Carleill of Sewerby, Arg., on a chevron between three Cornish choughs sable, beaked and legged gules, three etoiles or.

In Thoresby's pedigree of Fairfax of Menston Charles F. of M., Esq., marries Dorothy, dau. of Richard Carleill, Gent. Thomas Wilson in his Yorkshire Pedigrees makes this lady a dau. of Robert Carleill of Sewerby, but as it seems to me erroneously.

On the authority of Mr Buck's account of his family where it is mentioned that Thomas Buck of Carneby marries Theodosia Carleill I have added that name to the children of Robert & Anne, as they were sent to me by Mr Carlisle. My present impression however is that the lady whom Mr Buck called Theodosia was in fact Alethea, whose name appears in the Visitation Pedigree.

Hunter.

MS. 152

This pedigree consists solely of three pedigrees (two of them official) incorporated together.

1. One in St. George's Visitation, Harl. 1487, f. 461a.
2. One in Dugdale's Visitation, C. 40, in Col. of Arms.
3. One by Beckwith of York in his book of Yorkshire pedigrees in possession of Lord Harrowby.

The Arms borne by this family have been, Or, a bugle-horn sab. stringed vert between a mullet in chief & a crescent in base gules. But it appears they were not able to satisfy the Heralds respecting their right to them, for in 1612 it is said, Non probavit arma; and in 1665 that respite was given for proof of their Arms, & none made.

Thornton is about a mile from Pickering on the road to Scarborough.

The Crest was, On a wreath, or & v., a human skull proper. An older coat claimed by them was, Arg., a fess gules between 3 bugle-horns s.

Robert Hunter of Thornton in Pickering Lythe, = . . . dau. of . . . Parkinson of co. York, lived in the reign of Henry VII. Hag-house in the Bishoprick.

Roger Hunter of Thornton = . . . dau. of . . . Watson.

Robert Hunter of Thornton, living there in 1612 = Ann, dau. of John Carleill of when he entered his pedigree. Sewerby. (See PED., p. 150.)

Robert Hunter of Thornton, son & heir; with him the pedigree in Dugdale's Visitation begins; d. in 1652 or thereabouts. = Ellen, dau. of William Spacey of Buckton. Ralph. Mary. Mercy. James. Anne. Elizabeth.

Christian,<sup>1</sup> wife of Michael Coppinson of Hull.

Dorothy, wife of Christopher Hobman of Garton, co. York.

Frances, wife of William Ives of Thornton, co. York.

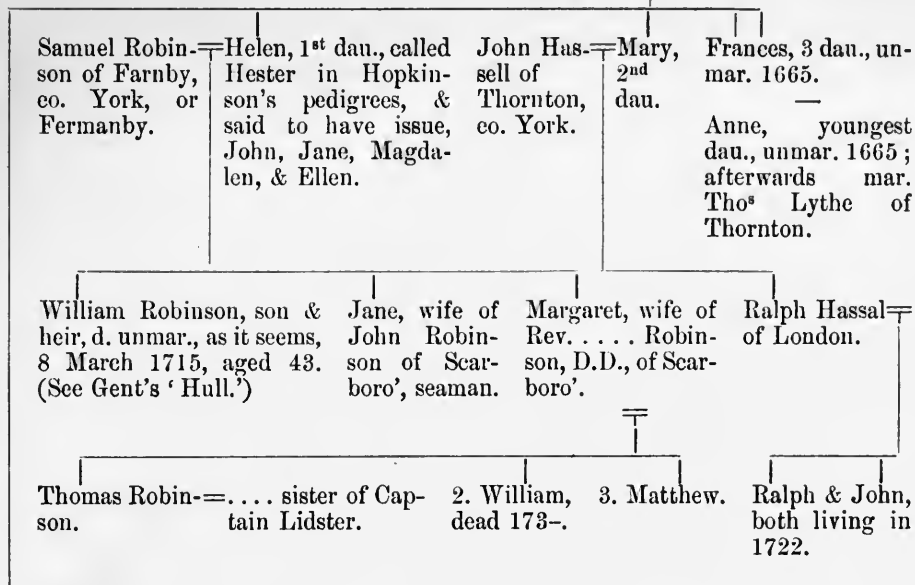

Mary, wife of Machabee Hollis of Hull.

<sup>1</sup> In Beckwith's MS. Christian is said to marry . . . Berryman, & the wife of Coppinson to be called Grisel. He has also a third son Anthony, mar. to a dau. of Horsley of Beckar near Whitby.

A

2. Robert Hunter of Thornton. He is not in St. George's Visitation. = Anne, dau. of Thomas Boys of Edston, co. York.

1. Bethel Hunter of Thornton, aged 9 1612; d. in 1655 or thereabouts. = Magdalen, dau. of Thomas Percyhay of Ryton, co. York, Esq.

William. Robert. Richard. Christopher Hunter, = Catherine, dau. & heir of Fran-cis Danby of Thorp-Bassett, co. York, brother to James Danby, father to Ursula & Mileah, who both mar. Rokebys.

These sons are given in Beck-with's pedigree. They do not appear in Dugdale's, & must (if they existed at all) have d. young.

Christopher Hunter, = Catherine, dau. & heir of Fran-cis Danby of Thorp-Bassett, co. York, brother to James Danby, father to Ursula & Mileah, who both mar. Rokebys.

Robert Hun-ter of Thornton. = Dorothy, another dau. of Arthur Noel of Hay-holm, parson of Seam near Sun-derland.

The Hunters below are made children of Machabes, not Robert, in Poulson's copy of this pedigree, p. 355.

B

Probably one of the Hunters in this last generation is the person of the name who mar. a dau. of Thomas Strangways of Pickering, as at p. 260.

Beckwith has added to the pedigree that the mother of Dorothy Noel took to her second husband the Rev. W<sup>m</sup> Cayley, son of Arthur Cayley, brother of Sir William, & had a dau. who d. unmar. I do not see this Arthur in the Baronetage.

The wife of Machabes or Robert Hunter is the person mentioned in 'Gent. Mag.' lvi., 352, where it appears that she lived till April 1786 when she d. at Scarborough at the age of 106. She desired that her maiden name Noel might be put upon her tomb, & said that she was third cousin to the Duke of Richmond and Earl of Gainsborough. The following was entered at Dugdale's Visitation 1665:—

Henry Robinson of Fermanby = Jane, dau. of Hugh Greaves, Lord Mayor of York.

Who was Anthony Hunter, Gent., who informes against Stephen Holford of Thornton about Woods, co. York, as in Mem' of King's Rem<sup>r</sup> 38 H. 8? (See p. 260.)

Ledgard—Flower.

MS. 153

I know not whether these entries which I find in Oliver Heywood's & Dickenson's Obituary relate to these Ledgards, but it is probable that they do:— 1696, Catherine Ledgard of Idle, chief upholder of the Meeting place there; d. August the 1st, bur. at Calverley the 3rd. 1705, M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Ledgard of Idle, d. July.

John Flower of Gainsborough is called son-in-law by Elizabeth Hopkinson of Gainsborough, wid. 1736; proved 10 May 1738; or at least a John Flower is so called. She left £500 to dissenting trustees for religious & charitable objects. Francis Hopkinson of Gainsborough, wholesale mercer, left £200 to the Chapel in 1725.

Samuel Dawson & Sarah Heald were mar. 1 July 1716, her mother being then a widow & residing at Wakefield. See for Dawson, York Wills, 1794.

Mr Gollop of Strode near Beaminster informs me by letter, June 13, 1850, that 2 of these dan<sup>s</sup>, Edith & Mary, mar. 2 brothers, his great-grandfather being one; then Mr Gollop cannot have been b. much later than 1790, may not they be of the generation next above? What is entered here is from Hutchins' 'Dorsetshire.'

* Mr Matthew Henry had bin Min<sup>r</sup> at Chester many years, was remov'd to Hackney about 3 years ago, died at Nantwich in Cheshire June 22, its tho' of an Apoplexy, tho' had got a fall from his Horse day before, an eminent Min<sup>r</sup>, 57. (Northowram Register.)—J. W. C.

This account of the descendants of Matthew Henry, whose 'Exposition' on the Scriptures has long been so popular among the Non-Conformists, is taken from the pedigree in Ormerod's 'Cheshire,' aided by what is contained in the printed life of Mr Henry, & by information given me by his grand-daughter Mrs Eddowes. The descendants of his four sisters I received from Mr Butcher, who, it will be seen, mar. one of them, in a letter dated 22 Oct. 1821. He seems to have copied an account of the family drawn up about fifteen years ago. I have added very little to his account.

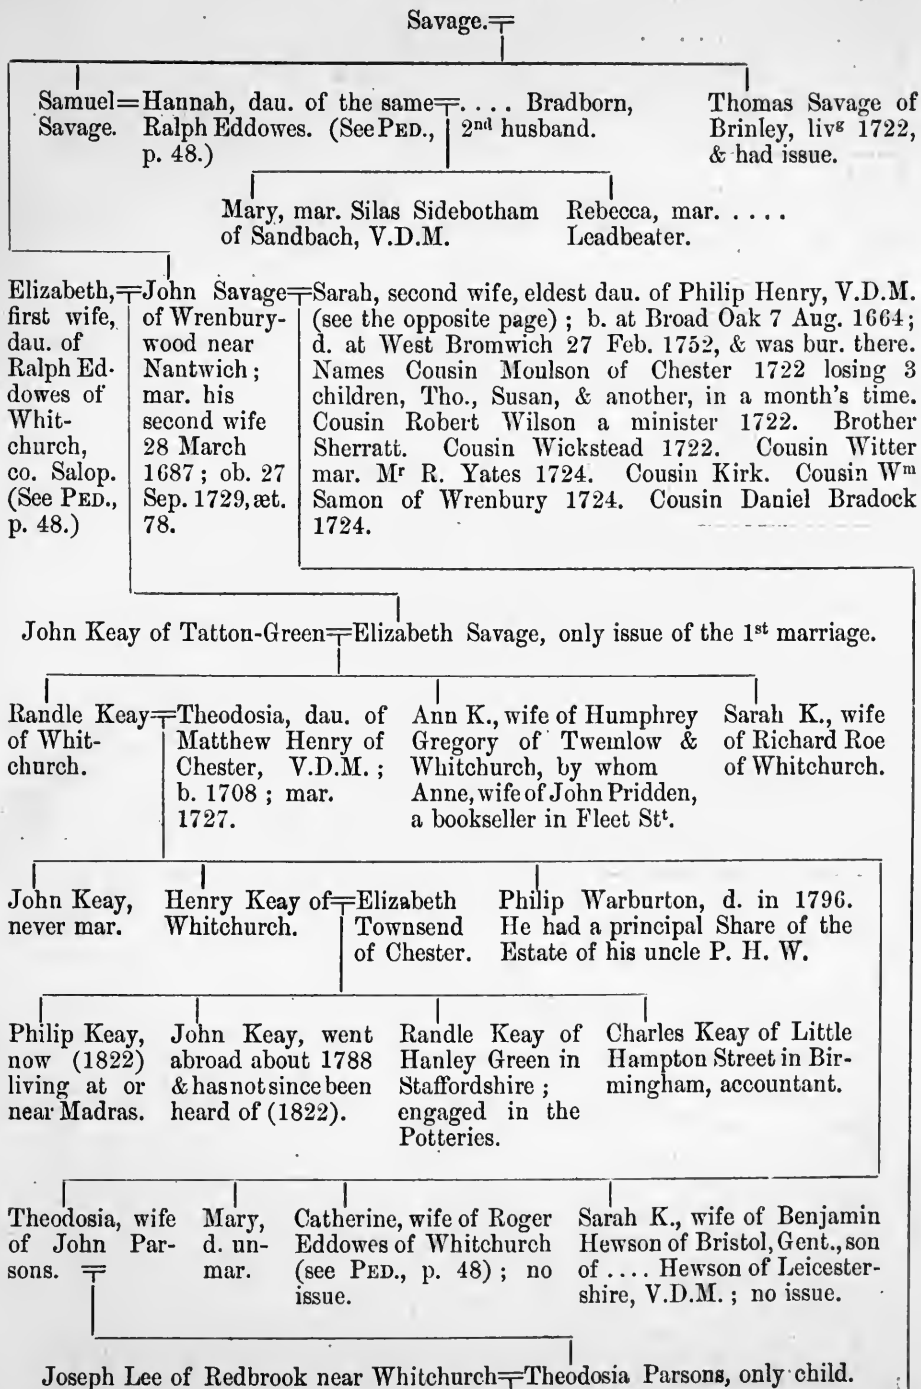

Robert Bosier, educated for the Ministry, was related to the Henrys, and so also was Benyon of Ash, eminent among the early Non-Conformists. (See for Benyon p. 181.)

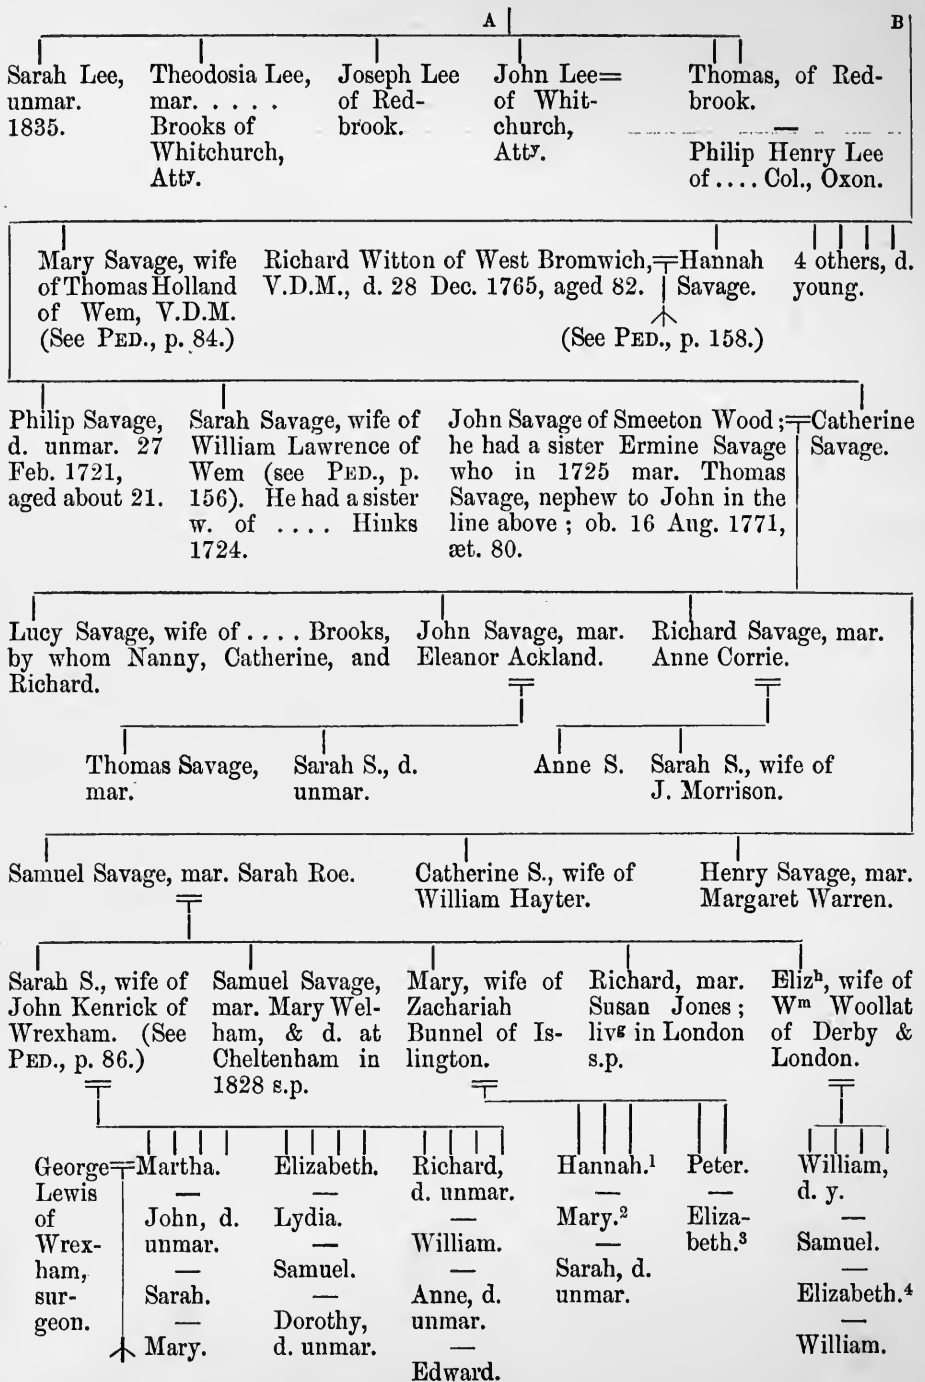

The principal part of the property enjoyed by Matthew Henry & his son came to the Ashtons. I apprehend there are no descendants remaining of the Bulkleys, & that the Ashtons, the Keays, & the Lees, are now the only descendants of Mr Henry. Of the four sisters it will be seen that the descendants of Sarah are very numerous, while there is only family (sic) sprung from each of the other sisters, viz. the Lightbodys from Catherine, the Rogers from Eleanor, & the Hultons from Anne.

Much has been published respecting this family. Lives of Philip & Matthew Henry, & of Mrs Sarah Savage, in separate volumes. Accounts of Mrs Hulton in 'Evang. Mag.' for 1815, p. 521, & of Dr Tylston in the same Mag. for 1817, p. 161.

1810. I was acquainted with Mr Philip Henry Savage, or Sauvage as he wrote the name. He was a Captain in the Army & was a son as was said of Admiral Sauvage. I mention it on account of the name. He was not I believe related to this family. He lived at Bath. His wife was a dau. of Francis Stone who was ejected from the living of Cold-Norton for Heretical Doctrine about 1808. They had no issue.

This pedigree was communicated to Mr Samuel Heywood of Nottingham, when he was collecting for the genealogy of his family in 1781, by Mr Peter John Heywood, then residing at Whitehaven. The earlier generations have the appearance of being deduced from family evidences. They may be compared with Dodsworth's pedigree above. A pedigree was registered at the Visitation 1644, from Peter, father of Peter who mar. Garside, with which this agrees. I have added the description and marriage of Captain Peter Heywood, who is well known to my wife's family. The conjecture that John Heywood, first of the family at p. 26, was son to Thomas is founded on proximity of residence, combined with what Oliver Heywood has recorded that he was by tradition descended of the Heywoods of Heywood, and that old Mr Robert Heywood of H. called his father cousin.

Revel.

Copy of a Pedigree in possession of Mr Richard Broomhead of Revel Grange in Stannington, co. York, which appears to have been compiled about the year 1720, but by whom is not shewn. Of the earlier parts I say nothing, but the later generations of the Revels of Stannington are correctly stated, as appears by comparison with a few wills and deeds of the family in the Museum of John Wilson of Broomhead. It serves to shew what in the opinion of the family is the alliance among the several branches of this family. I now find (Sep. 1823) that it was compiled by Thomas Statham, and that no dependance is to be placed on it for anything above Gregory. I do not recollect the authority on which I ascribe it to Statham. It looks very like one of Randal Holme's efforts. But I must have had some ground for ascribing it to Statham.

ADDITIONAL NOTICES OF REVEL OF STANNINGTON.

They are not found in any Visitation, nor in any Collections of Yorkshire Genealogy which I have seen.

They were probably Officers under the Earl of Shrewsbury. Shiffnal, to which one of the family removed, was a seat of those Earls.

They were Roman Catholics, as their descendants and heirs the Broomheads still are, who live at a mean house called Revel Grange, & which is supposed to be on the site of the old residence of the family. There is nothing of the least curiosity about the house. They lost a good deal of property during the Civil Wars.

John Burton of Dronfield mar. Eliz., dau. of Richard R. of Stannington. This was about 1532. (THE BURTON PEDIGREE, p. 146.)

Francis Pole of Spink Hill mar. Dorothy, dau. of Gregory R. of Stannington, about 1585. (See PED., p. 148.)

Thomas Revel of Stannington, & afterwards of Shiffnal, mar. (16 Nov. 1613) Anne, dau. of Christopher Wilson of Broomhead. (WILSON'S PED.)

Rowland Revel of Stannington mar. Elizabeth, dau. of Francis Percy of Scotton, co. York, Esq. (C. 40, 13.)

John Beighton of Hilltop near Bradfield mar. a dau. of Gregory Revel of Stannington about 1557.

Will of Rowland Revel of Stannington, dated 12 April 1644, proved at York 3 Sep. 1646. Mentions Elizabeth his wife, Gregory his son & heir, then under age, younger son Richard, dau<sup>s</sup> Bridget, Anne, & Gertrude, young brother Thomas Revel, and Edward his eldest son, Cousin Eliza Woodruffe, and brother in law John Percy, Esq.

Will of Lucy Percy of Stubs-Walden, psh. of Smeaton, co. York, Spinster, dated 8 April 1669. Mentions her nephew Richard Revel & nieces Ann & Gertrude Revel, nephew Ralph Oglethorpe, sister Shirtcliffe, niece Britton and Dorothy her dau., sister Revel, niece Elizabeth Ingleby, nephews Charles and William Percy, & nieces Ursula & Cicily Percy. She left £60 and a gilt Chalice to the nuns of Cambray.

Will of Ursula Revel, dated 5 Nov. 1694, her mother then living. Mentions her brothers Rowland, Thomas, & John, & sister Anne. Her father Balguy. Aunts Ann & Gertrude Revel. Cousins Ann Buske, Honor Moor, Mary Monke, Sarah Morphie, Edmund Morphie, John Greaves.

M<sup>r</sup> Revel Reynolds, Chief Commissioner of the Court for the relief of Insolvent Debtors, told me that all he knew of Revel was that there were two brothers Henry & Nathaniel liv<sup>g</sup> at Gainsborough. One of them was murdered. A dau. of one mar. . . . Reynolds, & had his father the Doctor.

Henry Revel of Gainsborough, wholesale mercer, liv<sup>s</sup> there 1704.

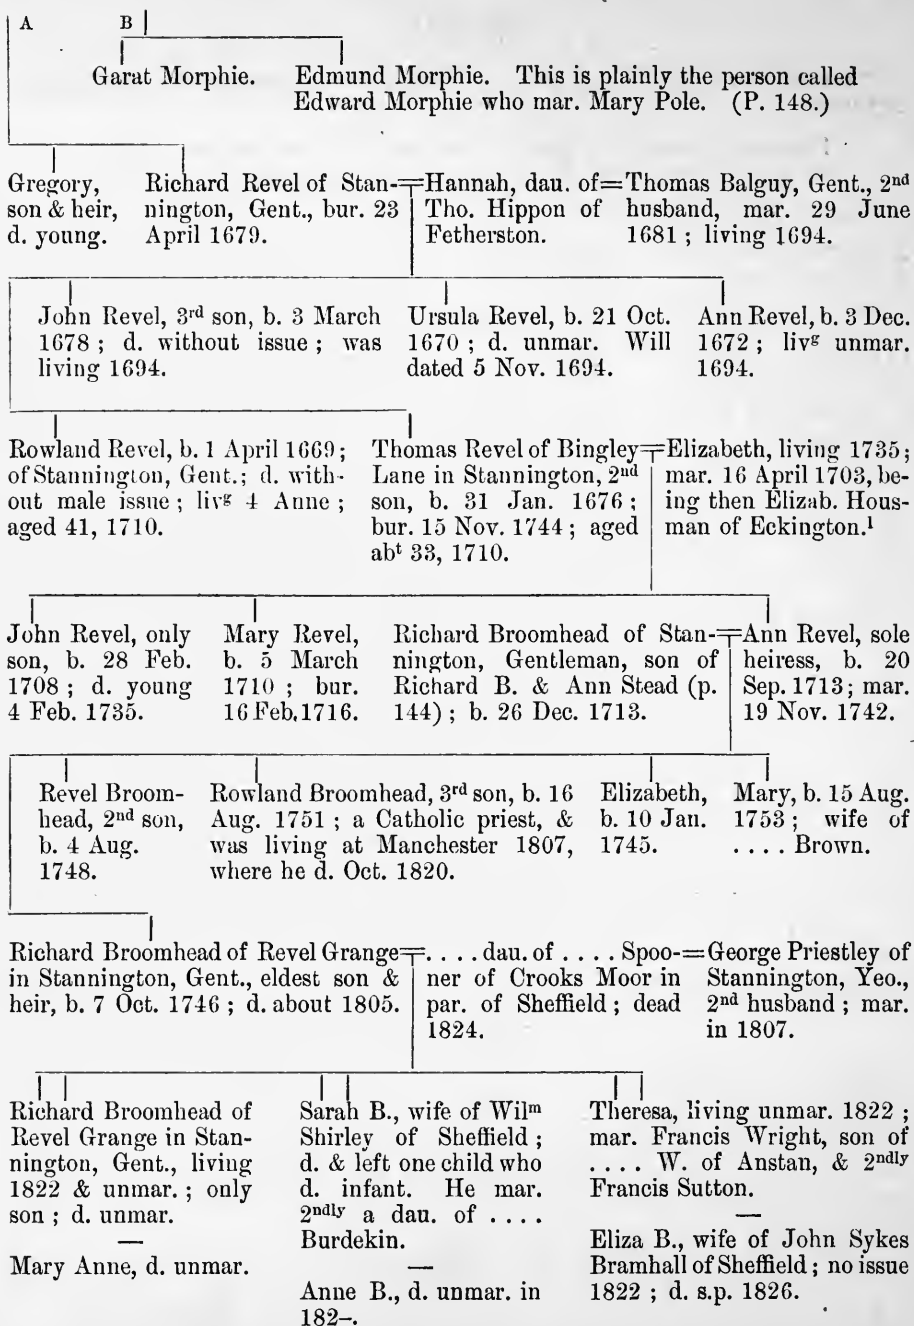

These pieces of Evidence it will be perceived agree perfectly with the old pedigree on the opposite page as far as they go, shewing that it has been compiled by a careful hand. The pedigree appears to stand thus: adding the Broomheads, several of whom I have personally known.

In 1 Edw. VI. Thomas Revel surrendered a Mess., etc., in Stannington to the use of Gregory his son & heir, then about to marry Elizabeth, dau. of Tho. Barber. Robert R. his younger son. This from the Court Rolls at Sheffield, & is decisive as to the descent of Gregory & the falsity of the old pedigree. May 5, 1826.

Observe the marriage of a Thomas Revel with the widow of West of Aughton. (See next page.)

<sup>1</sup> It appears by a Composition on account of Recusancy that in 1632 the wife of this Rowland Revell was named Faith, a former marriage I presume, & that Bridget was the issue of that marriage. This I conclude because she was older than the rest. Has a distinct mention in her father's will, and is not mentioned with her sisters in Lucy Percy's will.

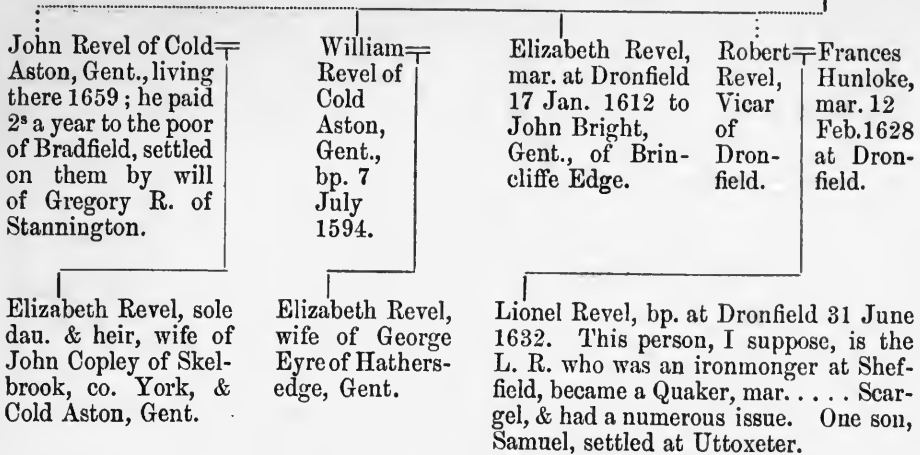

<sup>1</sup> Her father, James Houseman, was Picture Drawer and Limner to K. Charles II. and Q. Catherine Dowager. A sworn servant to the Queen for the Art. He mar. Elizab. March, dau. of Judge March of Scotland.

Revel.

Compare this pedigree with Woolley's, M.P.B. xii., 80.

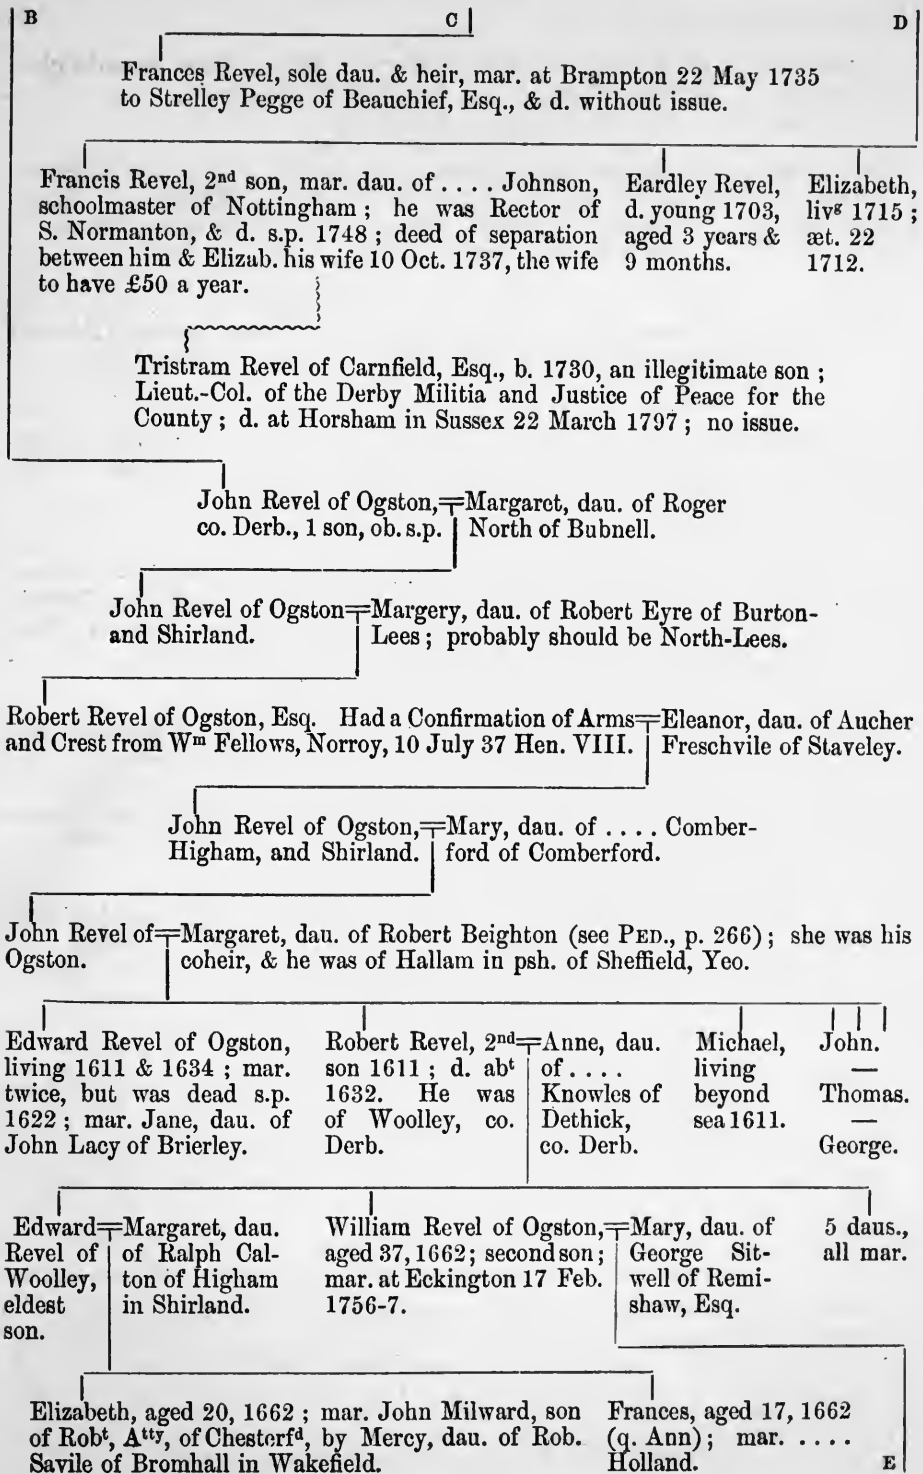

It is not my intention to fill this volume with genealogical matter that is to be found in the public depositories of such information, but I thought it worth while to preserve this as exhibiting what in the Herald's opinion is the true descent of Revel, it having been compiled from the different Visitations by the Rouge Croix for Mr Homfray of Yarmouth, from whom I had it; and as affording a convenient opportunity to introduce other information from other quarters, which the diligent student will easily distinguish.

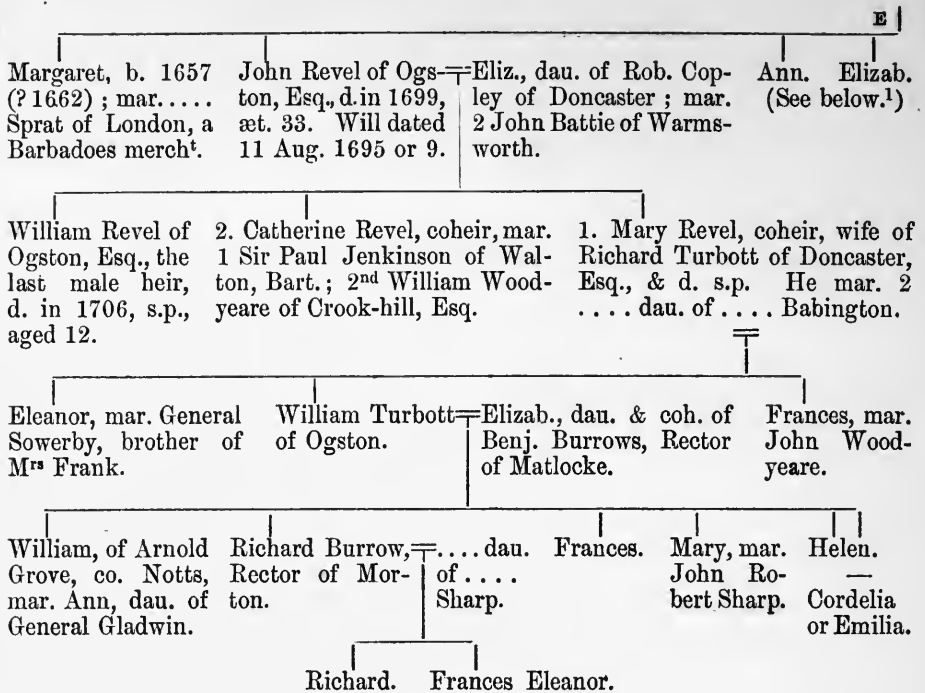

See many notices of Revel among the Talbot papers at the Heralds' College, & in the account of Law Expenses of the Countess of Shrewsbury, MS. in the Wilson Museum.

See for a very different story 'Itin.,' xxiii., 37.

In the Roll of Parl. ii., 408, are two petitions from two merchants of Germany named Ludebritte de Revel and Godfrid de Revel, who traded to the ports of Hull and Boston temp. Edw. III.

Bassano gives a different account of the generation after John and Margaret Beighton, making George the husband of Anne Knowles, & father of the next generation, & placing Robert seated at Lenton in Nottinghamshire, where he mar. & had issue.

Bassano makes Edw. & W<sup>m</sup> Revel sons not of Robert but of George by his wife Anne Knowles of Brackenfield; says John in that generation was the Raiser of the family, & that W<sup>m</sup> had Ogston by gift from him. Robert is then said to have lived at Lenton, where he mar. & had issue.

A letter from Robert Revel of Carlingthwaite the elder is in Dr Pegge's Collections, containing a full account of the descendants of Edward 1634, but he says nothing of the Illegitimacy which some other genealogist has alleged. (See M.P.B., xi., 81.)

There was a Edward Revel, Rector of Heath, father of Edward, an Att<sup>r</sup>, who was of Carlingthwaite, & d. in 1770.

Richard Turbott above was a son of W<sup>m</sup> Turbott of Mount St. John in Thirsk, who was High Sheriff of Yorkshire in 1710, by Mary, dau. & h. of Fr<sup>s</sup> Driffield of Easingwold by Ann, dau. of Geo. Middleton of Shipton. He was son of W<sup>m</sup> Turbott of Mount St. John who d. in 1673. (BURKE'S PEDIGREES.) W<sup>m</sup> T. of Arnold Grove had issue Gladwin, Helen, Anne, Maria, Lucy.

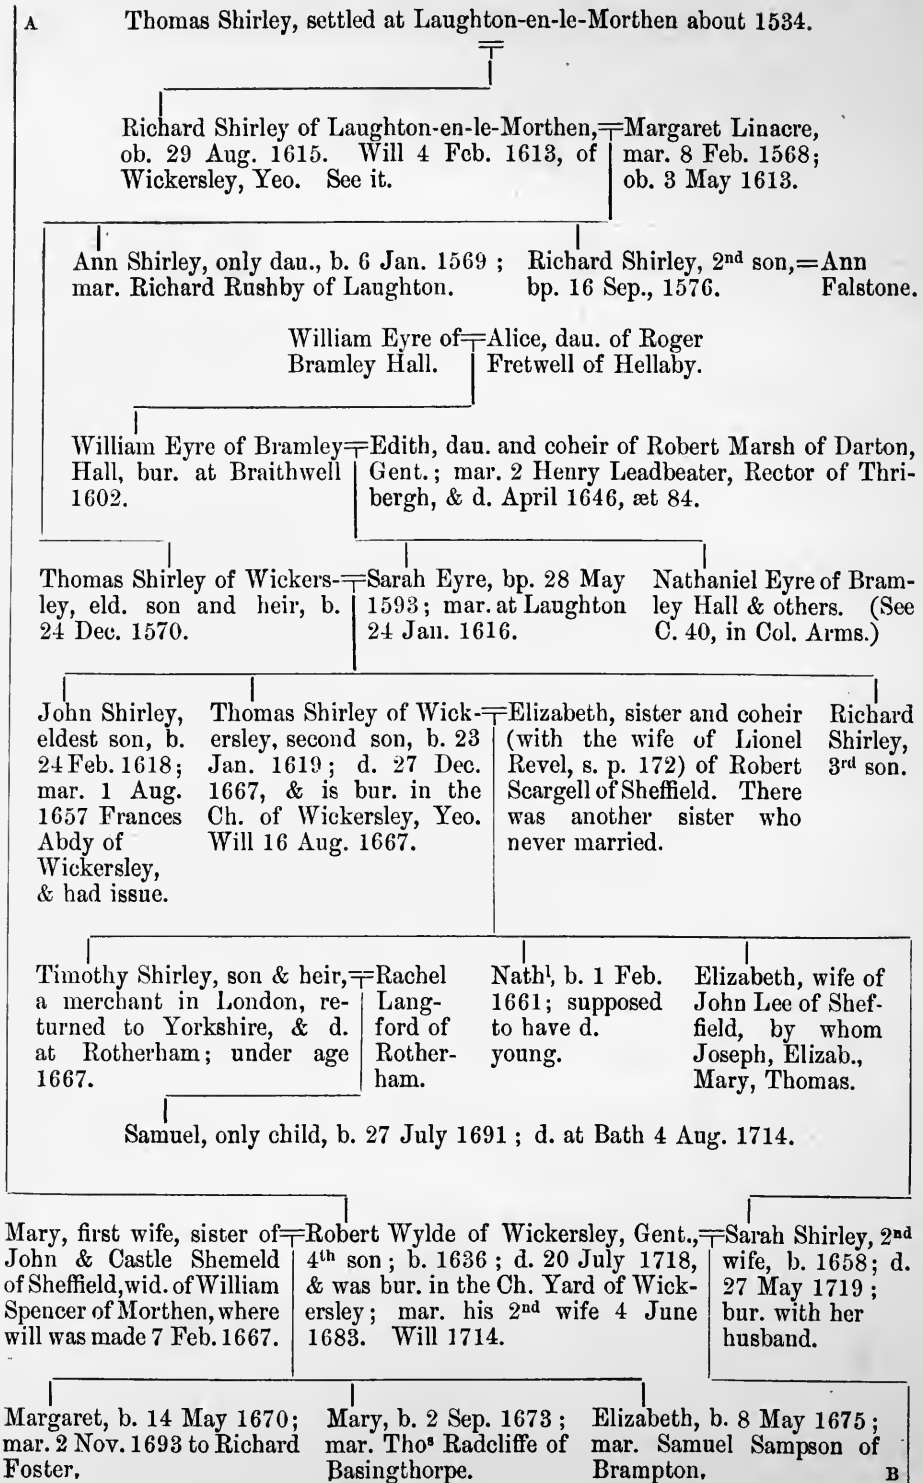

The children of W<sup>m</sup> Turbott of Mount St. John & Mary Driffield were Richard, Frances, Ursula, Ann, Dorothy, Margaret, Hester. (Warburton in Lanc., MS. 911.)

The line of Barker is formed from the Visitation of 1634 and 1662, and a pedigree entered by Sir Robert Barker. A few additions are made to it from Dronfield and Norton.

The Earls of Macclesfield are said in the Peerages to be descended of the Parkers on the opposite page, & Thomas the Yeoman of the Pantry is named as the Ancestor. This pedigree is Brailsford's account of this noble family, which agrees with Le Neve's 'Knights' Pedigrees,' where mention is made of Cap<sup>n</sup> William Parker, uncle to Sir Thomas, who also appears in the 'Duc. Leod.,' p. 129. It appears to me that little credit is due to the Peerages in this descent.

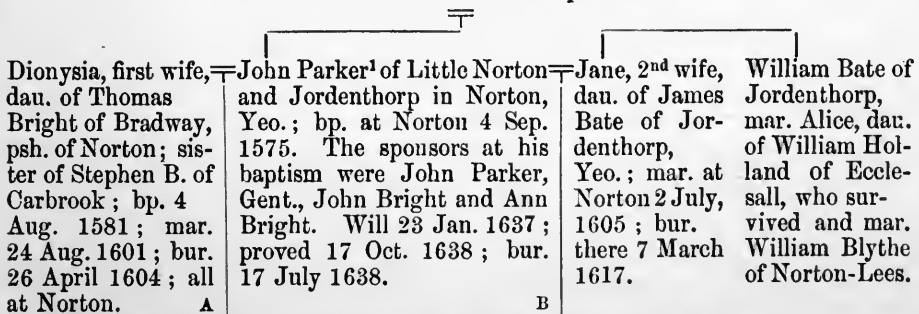

Again, in the 'History of Browsholme' by Tho<sup>s</sup> Lister Parker, the grandfather of the Earl is said to be a younger brother of their family. A letter from the Earl of Macclesfield on the subject is nothing to the purpose, the relationship he speaks of being thro' the Carriers.

Parker.

The great question upon this pedigree would be whether the first John was related to those on the opposite page. It will be observed that one of the family opposite was a sponsor at the birth of his son. He appears to have had other children.

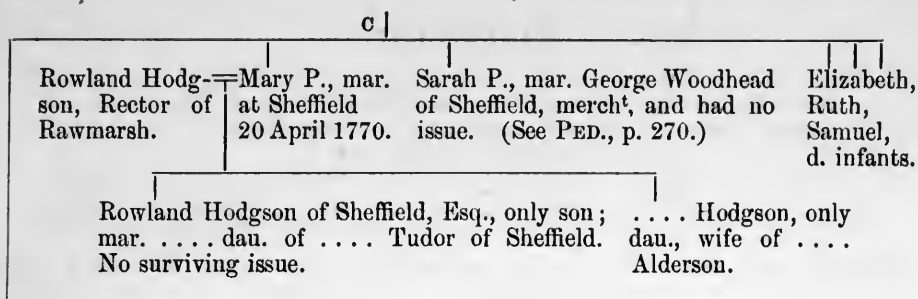

John Parker of Little Norton, Yeoman; seems to have been bur. at Norton 12 April 1615.

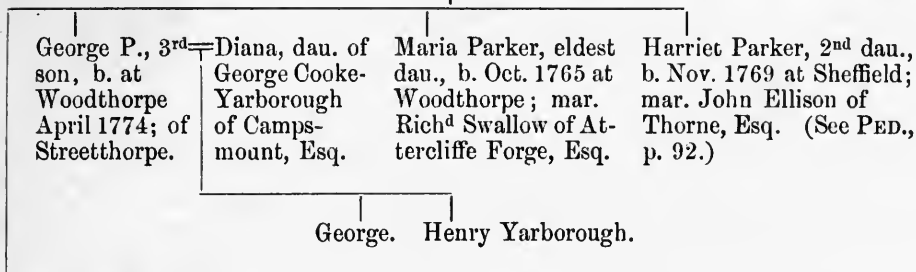

<sup>1</sup> Married a third wife Anne; she is named in the will 1637.

John Parker of Woodthorpe, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, d. 6 Jan. 1794, aged 66; bur. in the Ch. of Hansworth. = Alice, only dau. & heir of Hugh Marshall of Horsforth near Leeds, merchant, by . . . . * Oates his wife. (See PED., p. 128.)

John Parker, eldest son, b. at Woodthorpe Feb. 1767; d. 10 May 1773. = Hugh Parker of Woodthorpe, Esq., son & heir. One of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the W. Rid. of York<sup>e</sup>; b. at Woodthorpe Sep. 1772. = Mary, dau. of Samuel Walker of Masboro', Esq. (See PED., p. 304.)

When the Grant of Arms was made to John Parker, a pedigree was entered from Rowland, which forms the basis of this pedigree. The descent of Rowland I have collected from the Parish Register of Norton.

There have been several other families of the name of Parker living in the parish of Norton, which if originally the same were separated before the reign of Elizabeth.

The Parkers of Woodthorpe are entered at Col. of Arms, 6 D. 14, p. 169.
